8 1. a. As used in this section, “pupil directory information”
9 means a pupil’s name and address.

10 b. The board of education of a school district or regional school 11 district located in a county in which there is a county vocational 12 school district shall provide, upon the request of that county
13 vocational school district, pupil directory information for each pupil 14 enrolled in grades six through 12, or any subset of these grades, as 15 requested by that county vocational school district. The board of 16 education of a school district or regional school district shall not 17 provide the pupil directory information for a pupil if the parent 18 previously submitted a request that the pupil’s information not be 19 released for the purposes of this subsection. The board of education 20 of a school district or regional school district shall notify parents of 21 the opportunity to prohibit the release of pupil directory
22 information.

23 c. The Commissioner of Education shall establish the timelines
24 during which a county vocational school district may request pupil 25 directory information and when the school district or regional 26 school district shall provide the information.

27

28 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
