STATEMENT.

The objects of the above bill are to re-establish the exemptions from taxation for soldiers, sailors, veterans and their widows, during widowhood, of the present war and all other wars in which this country has been engaged, which exemptions from taxation had been the sound and settled policy of the State of New Jersey, for a long period of years, and which policy was re-enacted by the Legislature of 1918, see Laws, of 1918, page 62. By inadvertence these exemptions, except as they apply to poll taxes, were repealed by the Legislature later in the session of nineteen hundred and eighteen, see Laws of 1918, page 851. The revision of 1918 of the act concerning the assessment and collection of taxes abolished these exemptions so far as they apply to real estate and personal property and the passage of this act will re-establish the exemptions as they existed for many years.

STATEMENT.

The purpose of this act is to exempt from taxation ores which are shipped into the State by nonresident owners for the purpose of refining, and which are not the property of the smelting plants at which they are located while in this State.

ASSEMBLY, No. 117

(Chap 296, Laws 1920, page 533.)

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

INTRODUCED JANUARY 25, 1921.

By Mr. EATON.

Referred to Committee on Militia.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act for the assessment and collection of taxes' (Revision of nineteen hundred and eighteen) approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and eighteen," which amendment was approved April twenty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty.

1 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1 1. Section three of the act of which this act is amendatory be and the same is
2 hereby amended so as to read as follows:

3 3. Any real estate or personal property owned and used for military purposes
4 by any organization under the jurisdiction of this State or of the United States, on 5 condition that all income derived from said property above the expenses of its main-
6 tenance and repair, shall be used exclusively for such military purposes: and, any 7 building, real estate or personal property used solely by an organization composed
8 entirely of veterans of any war of the United States, owned by an incorporated 9 company or association and used exclusively, without profit, as a headquarters or 10 home by and for such veterans.

1 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT.

The exemption of a home used exclusively and without profit by veterans of any war of the United States (as underlined above) is the only new feature of this amendment to the Tax Exemption Act. The amendment is offered by members of the United Spanish War Veterans who have purchased and now occupy the building at 29 Franklin street, Newark. The taxes, (which have been paid for 1920) when added to interest and maintenance charges form too heavy a burden as demonstrated by the experience of 1920.

122 ployee of this State or of any municipality of this State, shall be considered to be 123 public records and shall be free and open, at all times, for the purpose of obtaining 124 information to aid in the preparation of the claims for exemption from taxation

147 (15) The metal contents of ores and unrefined metals owned by nonresidents
148 of New Jersey and stopped in transit through the State for the purpose of refining.

I 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT.

The exemption of a home used exclusively and without profit by veterans of any war of the United States (as underlined) is the only new feature of this amendment to the Tax Exemption Act. The amendment is offered by members of the United Spanish War Veterans who have purchased and now occupy the building at 29 Franklin street, Newark. The taxes, which have been paid for 1920, when added to the interest and maintenance charges form too heavy a burden as demonstrated by the experience of 1920.

INTRODUCED JANUARY 21, 1924.

By Mr. BRIGHT.

Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

AN ACT providing that the property, the title to which is vested in the Morris Canal and Banking Company in trust for the State of New Jersey, shall be deemed to be the property of the State of New Jersey within the meaning of any statute relating to taxation of property.

I BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

I 1. The property, the title to which is vested in the Morris Canal and Banking 2 Company in trust for the State of New Jersey, shall be deemed to be the property of 3 the State of New Jersey within the meaning of any statute relating to the taxation of 4 property so long as the title to the same is vested as aforesaid.

I 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT.

The purpose of this act is to make it perfectly clear that the canal property is not subject to taxation so long as the title is vested in the canal company in trust for the State of New Jersey. This is the fourth of the bills designed to carry out the recommendation of the Morris Canal Committee.

A408

143 (15) The metal contents of ores and unrefined metals owned by nonresidents
144 of New Jersey and stopped in transit through the State for the purpose of refining.

STATEMENT.

The object of this bill is to enable warehousemen in the State of New Jersey to compete successfully with warehousemen in neighboring States where the property of the patrons of such foreign warehousemen is relieved from taxation. Any loss of taxes in the State of New Jersey would be more than offset by the increase of taxable property of New Jersey warehousemen resulting from their growth if this handicap is removed.

145 panies the taxation of which is provided for by any other law or laws of this 146 State.

153 or corporation engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

156 ance with an act entitled "An act defining motor vehicles and providing for the 158 ing the use and speed of motor vehicles; fixing the amount of license and regis-159 tration fees; prescribing and regulating process and the service thereof and pro-

160 ceedings for the violation of the provisions of the act and penalties for said viola-161 tions." also known as chapter two hundred and eight of the Laws of New Jersey, 162 one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, its supplements and amendments.

151 (16) All personal property stored in a warehouse of any person, copartnership

153 (17) All motor vehicles registered by the Motor Vehicle Department of the State
154 of New Jersey and upon which registration fees have been paid, in accordance with 155 an act entitled "An act defining motor vehicles and providing for the registration of 156 the same and the licensing of drivers thereof; fixing rules regulating the use and 157 speed of motor vehicles; fixing the amount of license and registration fees; prescrib-158 ing and regulating process and the service thereof and proceedings for the viola-

163 provisions of an act entitled "An act concerning auto busses, commonly called 164 jitneys, and their operation in cities," approved March seventeenth, one thousand 165 nine hundred and sixteen, or any act amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, 166 or in any way be construed to relieve any auto bus from the payment of any license
167 fee, franchise tax or other imposition in the nature thereof whether such fee, tax
168 or imposition be paid to the State of New Jersey, or to any municipality or munici-169 palities thereof.

1 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

STATEMENT

The law at present provides that property owned by a single corporation or association organized exclusively for the moral and mental improvement of men, women and

8 composed entirely of veterans of any war of the United States shall be 19 taxation.

20 Property, the title to which is in the Morris Canal and Banking Com-

1 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT

The purpose of this bill is to clarify the Tax Act with regard to the taxation and exemption of property owned by the State, counties, school districts and taxing districts.

This bill is sponsored by the New Jersey State League of Municipalities.

5. And be it enacted, That the following persons and property shall be exempt from taxation, viz:

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in addition to the property exempt from taxation by the act to which this is a further supplement, the funds of all charitable institutions or associations collected and held exclusively for the benefit of the sick or disabled members thereof, or for the widows of the deceased members of such charitable institutions or associations, or for the education, support and maintenance of the children of the deceased members thereof, shall also be exempt from taxation.

In a pamphlet entitled, The General Tax Laws of New Jersey with Explanations and Instructions by the Attorney General, Trenton, 1867, the following statements are made:

page 5. All the real estate in this State is to be assessed and taxed, excepting the following, namely:

3. The buildings of colleges, academies, seminaries of learning and public libraries, school houses, buildings erected and used for public worship, and buildings erected and used exclusively for charitable purposes, and the lands necessary for the enjoyment of the said buildings, which, in no case, may exceed five acres, pews in churches, graveyards not exceeding ten acres of ground, and parsonages, with the lots attached, not exceeding five thousand dollars in value.

page 6. All the personal property held by residents of this State is to be assessed and taxed, excepting the following, namely:

3. The endowment or fund of colleges, academies, seminaries of learning and public libraries, and the furniture and personal property used in colleges, academies, seminaries of learning, public libraries, school houses, buildings erected and used for religious purposes, engines and apparatus of individuals or companies used for extinguishing fires.

Laws of 1866 Chapter 487, p. 1078, see 5 II.

5. And be it enacted that the following persons and property shall be exempt from taxation, viz:

II. All colleges, academies or seminaries of learning, public libraries, school houses, buildings erected and used for religious worship, and the land whereon the same are situate, necessary to the fair use and enjoyment thereof, not exceeding five acres for each one, the furniture thereof and the personal property used therein, the endowment or fund of any religious society, college, academy, seminary of learning or public library; provided, that no building so used which may be rented for such purposes and rent received by owner therefor shall be exempted; the stock of any corporation of this state, which by a charter or other contract with this state is expressly exempted from taxation, the stock of any corporation of this state, the capital whereof is by this act made taxable to and against said corporation, pews in churches, grave yards not exceeding ten acres of ground, cemeteries and all buildings erected thereon, and all buildings used exclusively for charitable purposes, with the land whereon the same are erected, and which may be necessary for the fair enjoyment thereof, and the furniture and personal property used therein, the funds of all charitable institutions and associations collected and held exclusively for the sick or disabled members thereof, or for the widows of deceased members, or for the education, support and maintenance of the children of deceased members.

In 1868 a Report of the Commissioner to Revise the Tax Laws of New Jersey. Trenton, 1868, recommended a new tax law with the following exemptions:

page 20. Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the following persons and property shall be exempt from taxation, namely:

VI. All colleges, academies, or seminaries of learning, public libraries, school-houses, buildings erected and used for religious worship, and the land whereon the same are situated, necessary to the fair use and occupation of the same for such purposes, the furniture thereof, and the personal property used therein; provided however, that no building so used which may be rented for such purpose, and rent received by the owner thereof, shall be exempted.

VII. The endowment or fund of any religious society, college, academy, seminary of learning, or public library.

X. Pews in churches, grave-yards not exceeding ten acres of ground, cemeteries, and all buildings erected thereon, and necessary for the purpose thereof.

XII. The funds of all charitable institutions and associations collected and held exclusively for sick or disabled members thereof, or for the education, support and maintenance of the children of deceased members.

This bill was not enacted. Instead the wording of the 1866 bill was taken over without change in the Revision of 1877, p. 1152, Taxes sec. 64 II.

Laws of 1893, Chapter 122, p. 225. A further supplement.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the dwelling house owned by any religious corporation and the land upon which the same stands, while and during only the time actually used by the officiating clergyman of such religious corporation, shall be exempt from taxation to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, but not more than one dwelling actually used by any one religious corporation shall be so exempt.

Laws 1894, Chapter 233, p. 354. A further supplement . . .
added tax exemption for ". . . buildings used as asylums or schools for the care, cure nurture, maintenance and education of feeble-minded or idiotic persons and children, provided such institutions are duly incorporated under the laws of this state. . ."

In 1896 a new Report was filed. Report of the Commission Appointed by Governor Griggs to Investigate the Subject of Taxation. Trenton, 1897. The minority report had the following to say about exemptions:

|| p. 81. That our list of "Exemptions" or property exempted from taxation is now unduly large and increasing, and needs revision and reduction. . .

. . . Of course, all public property should be exempt, because to tax that would be for the State merely to take money out of one pocket and put it into the other. So, all Churches and Charities should be exempt, because of their devotion to public or quasi public uses, and being thereby differentiated from ordinary property. It is claimed by some, however, that parsonages should be taxed.
But I fail to see why parsonages should be taxed and Churches exempt, because they both belong to the same congregations and are supported by the same worshipers, without income to themselves or charge to the State,
and for the uplifting and benefit of the whole community.
So, all Schools and Colleges should be exempt, because to tax them would be to tax knowledge and intelligence, and no civilized or Christian Commonwealth could afford to do that. But no reason is seen why the last two items of our said "Exemptions" might not well be reduced, with much gain to the State. Of course, our Country graveyards and Church graveyards should be exempt, because free to everyone and yielding no income--literally "God's acre". But no reason is known why our incorporated Cemeteries should not be taxed, because they sell lots and pay dividends; but their lots when sold should be exempt, because no longer productive, and also because they are now exempt from levy and execution for debt. But the Cemetery Companies themselves should pay taxes, the same as anybody else. . .

Laws 1901, Chapter 142, p. 300.

1. The following property shall be exempt from taxation, namely, any building used for purposes considered charitable under the common law; provided, the said building is occupied in whole by the organization

STATEMENT.

The objects of the above bill are to re-establish the exemptions from taxation for soldiers, sailors, veterans and their widows, during widowhood, of the present war and all other wars in which this country has been engaged, which exemptions from taxation had been the sound and settled policy of the State of New Jersey, for a long period of years, and which policy was re-enacted by the Legislature of 1918, see Laws, of 1918, page 62. By inadvertence these exemptions, except as they apply to poll taxes, were repealed by the Legislature later in the session of nineteen hundred and eighteen, see Laws of 1918, page 851. The revision of 1918 of the act concerning the assessment and collection of taxes abolished these exemptions so far as they apply to real estate and personal property and the passage of this act will re-establish the exemptions as they existed for many years.

STATEMENT.

The object of this bill is to enable warehousemen in the State of New Jersey to compete successfully with warehousemen in neighboring States where the property of the patrons of such foreign warehousemen is relieved from taxation. Any loss of taxes in the State of New Jersey would be more than offset by the increase of taxable property of New Jersey warehousemen resulting from their growth if this handicap is removed.

STATEMENT

The purpose of this bill is to enable two or more charitable corporations to be housed in a single building, sharing the expense or without expense to one or more of them, without loss of tax exemption. The present law grants tax exemption only to a charitable corporation which owns and uses the entire building exclusively for its own purposes. See the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals in Trustees of Y. M. & Y. W. H. A. of Newark vs. State Board of Tax Appeals, 121 N. J. L. 65 (1938).

The bill also will permit a charitable foundation to hold title to a building used exclusively by one or more other charitable corporations.

This bill is desired by the Jewish Community Foundation which proposes to acquire or erect one or more buildings for the exclusive use of Jewish social work agencies serving Essex county and adjoining municipalities, and is approved by the Welfare Federation of Newark, New Jersey, in order to permit the consolidation of other social work agencies in fewer buildings.

This bill amends P. L. 1948, c. 259 as follows:

Section one is amended to include veterans having both hands or both feet or a hand and a foot amputated.

Section two is amended so that the eligible veteran may take title to the "dwelling house" either in his name alone or in his name and that of his spouse as tenants by the entirety.

Section three is not amended.

Section four is amended so that an eligible veteran owning a multiple building or structure and occupying a portion of same may obtain a tax exemption on that portion of said building or structure which he occupies.

The act is supplemented by adding a new section to define "total blindness." It is that definition used to guide the New Jersey State Commission for the Blind in its work and also by the administrators of the statute granting a $500.00 pension to the blinded veterans of World War II.
