ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 38

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

PRE-FILED FOR INTRODUCTION IN THE 1978 SESSION

By Assemblymen BATE and MARTIN

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION proposing to amend Article VI, Sections I, III, V, and VI, and Article XI, and to repeal Article VI, Section IV, of the Constitution of the State of New Jersey.

1 BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of the State of New 2 Jersey (the Senate concurring):

1 1. The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of 2 the State of New Jersey is hereby agreed to:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

3 a. Article VI, Section I, paragraph 1, be amended to read as 4 follows:

5 1. The judicial power shall be vested in a Supreme Court, a 6 Superior Court, County Courts and inferior courts of limited 7 jurisdiction. The inferior courts and their jurisdiction may from 8 time to time be established, altered or abolished by law.

9 b. Article VI, Section III, paragraphs 1 and 3, be amended to 10 read as follows:

11 1. The Superior Court shall consist of such number of judges as 12 may be authorized by law, but not less than 24, each of whom 13 shall exercise the powers of the court subject to rules of the 14 Supreme Court. The Superior Court shall at all times at least two 15 judges resident in each of the counties of this State, who are resi- 16 dent therein at the time of appointment.

17 3. The Superior Court shall be divided into an Appellate Divi-18 sion, a Law Division, and a Chancery Division. Each division shall 19 have such parts, consist of such number of judges, and hear such 20 causes, as may be provided by rules of the Supreme Court. At least 21 one judge of the Superior Court shall at all times be assigned to 22 sit in each of the counties of the State, who at the time of his 23 appointment was a resident of the county.

24 c. Article VI, Section IV, be repealed.

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

25 d. Article VI, Section V, paragraphs 1 and 2 amended to read
26 as follows:

27 1. Appeals may be taken to the Supreme Court:

28 (a) In causes determined by the appellate division of the 29 Superior Court involving a question arising under the Constitution
30 of the United States or this State;

31 (b) In causes where there is a dissent in the Appellate Division
32 of the Superior Court;

33 (c) In capital causes;

34 (d) On certification by the Supreme Court to the Superior Court
35 and, where provided by rules of the Supreme Court, to the [County
36 Courts and the] inferior courts; and

37 (e) In such causes as may be provided by law.

38 2. Appeals may be taken to the appellate division of the 39 Superior Court from the law and chancery divisions of the 40 Superior Court[, the County Courts] and in such other causes as 41 may be provided by law.

42 e. Article VI, Section VI, paragraphs 1, 2, 4, 5 and 7 be amended
43 to read as follows:

44 1. The Governor shall nominate and appoint, with the advice
45 and consent of the Senate, the Chief Justice and associate justices 46 of the supreme court, the judges of the superior court, [the 47 judges of the county courts] and the judges of the inferior courts
48 with jurisdiction extending to more than one municipality. No
49 nomination to such an office shall be sent to the Senate for confirma-
50 tion until after 7 days' public notice by the Governor.

51 2. The justices of the supreme court[, and the judges of the 52 superior court [and the judges of the county courts] shall each
53 prior to his appointment have been admitted to the practice of law
54 in this State for at least 10 years.

55 4. The justices of the supreme court[, and the judges of the 56 superior court [and the judges of the county courts] shall be 57 subject to impeachment, and any judicial officer impeached shall not 58 exercise his office until acquitted. The judges of the superior court 59 [and the judges of the county courts] shall also be subject to 60 removal from office by the Supreme Court for such causes and in 61 such manner as shall be provided by law.

62 5. Whenever the Supreme Court shall certify to the Governor
63 that it appears that any justice of the supreme court[, or judge 64 of the superior court [or judge of the county court] is so in-
65 capacitated as substantially to prevent him from performing his 66 judicial duties, the Governor shall appoint a commission of three 67 persons to inquire into the circumstances; and, on their recommen-

68 dation, the Governor may retire the justice or judge from office, on 69 pension as may be provided by law.

70 7. The justices of the supreme court~~[,]~~ and the judges of the 71 superior court ~~[and the judges of the county courts]~~ shall hold 72 no other office or position, of profit, under this State or the United 73 States. Any such justice or judge who shall become a candidate for 74 an elective public office shall thereby forfeit his judicial office.

75 f. Article XI be amended by adding thereto Section VI as 76 follows:

SECTION VI

77 When this amendment to the Constitution providing for the 78 abolition of the County Courts takes effect:

79 (a) All the jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties of the 80 County Court of each county, the judicial officers, clerks, employees 81 thereof, and the causes pending therein, and their files, shall be 82 transferred to the Superior Court. Until otherwise provided by 83 law, the judicial officers, surrogates and clerks of the County Courts
84 and the employees of said officers, clerks, surrogates and courts,
85 shall continue in the exercise of their duties as if this amendment
86 had not been adopted. For the purposes of this paragraph, a cause
87 shall be deemed to be pending notwithstanding that an adjudication
88 has been entered therein, provided the time limited for appeal has 89 not expired or the adjudication reserves any party the right to 90 apply for further relief.

91 (b) All the functions, powers and duties conferred by the statute,
92 rules or otherwise, upon the judges of the County Courts, shall be
93 transferred to and may be exercised by judges of the Superior
94 Court until otherwise provided by law or rules of the Supreme 95 Court.

96 (c) Until otherwise provided by law, all county clerks shall 97 become clerks of the Law Division of the Superior Court and all
98 surrogates shall become clerks of the Chancery Division (Probate 99 Part) of the Superior Court for their respective counties and shall 100 perform such duties and maintain such files and records on behalf
101 of the Clerk of the Superior Court as may be required by law and 102 rule of court; and all fees payable to the county clerks and 103 surrogates prior to the effective date of this amendment shall con-
104 tinue to be so payable and be received for the use of their respective 105 counties until otherwise provided by law.

106 (d) The judges of the County Courts in office on the effective
107 date of this amendment shall be judges of the Superior Court. All 108 such judges who had acquired tenure on a County Court shall hold

109 office as a judge of the Superior Court during good behavior, with 110 all rights, and subject to all the provisions of the Constitution
 111 affecting a judge of the Superior Court, as though they were 112 initially appointed to the Superior Court. All other judges of the 113 County Courts shall hold office as judges of the Superior Court, 114 each for the period of his term which remains unexpired on the 115 effective date of this amendment; and if reappointed, he shall hold 116 office during good behavior, with all the rights and subject to all
 117 the provisions of the Constitution affecting a judge of the Superior
 118 Court as though he were initially appointed to the Superior Court.

1 2. When this proposed amendment to the Constitution is finally
 2 agreed to, pursuant to Article IX, paragraph 1 of the Constitution,
 3 it shall be submitted to the people at the next general election
 4 occurring more than 3 months after such final agreement and be
 5 published at least once in at least one newspaper of each county
 6 designated by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the 7 General Assembly and the Secretary of State, not less than 3
 8 months prior to said general election.

1 3. This proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be sub-
 2 mitted to the people at said election in the following manner and 3 form:

4 There shall be printed on each official ballot to be used at such 5 general election, the following:

6 a. In every municipality in which voting machines are not used,
 7 the following legend shall immediately precede the question:

8 If you favor the proposition printed below make a cross (×), 9 plus (+) or check (✓) in the square opposite the word "Yes." If 10 you are opposed thereto make a cross (×), plus (+) or check (✓)
 11 in the square opposite the word "No."

12 b. In every municipality the following question:

	Yes.	INCORPORATION OF THE COUNTY COURTS INTO THE SUPERIOR COURT
	No.	Shall the amendment to Article VI and Article XI of the Constitution to incor- porate the existing County Courts into the Superior Court, transfer their juris- diction and pending causes to the Su- perior Court, and appoint their judges to the superior court, be approved?

STATEMENT

This resolution proposes to amend the Constitution by incorporating the County Courts into the Superior Court.

ASSEMBLY JUDICIARY, LAW, PUBLIC SAFETY AND DEFENSE COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO
ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 38
with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: FEBRUARY 23, 1978

The purpose of this resolution is to propose a constitutional amendment incorporating the County Courts into the Superior Court.

The committee amendments provide that at least two judges of the Superior Court shall be appointed from each county, and that they shall sit in the county in which they reside. The number of judges required to reside in the county wherein they sit must be at least equal in number to the number of judges of the county court sitting in each of the counties at the adoption of this amendment. The committee's intent was to preserve the geographical balance now present in the County Court system.

 29 number of judges of the county court sitting in each of the counties 30 at the adoption of this amendment.*

31 c. Article VI, Section IV, be repealed.

32 d. Article VI, Section V, paragraphs 1 and 2 amended to read
 33 as follows:

34 1. Appeals may be taken to the Supreme Court:

35 (a) In causes determined by the appellate division of the 36 Superior Court involving a question arising under the Constitution
 37 of the United States or this State;

38 (b) In causes where there is a dissent in the Appellate Division
 39 of the Superior Court;

40 (c) In capital causes;

41 (d) On certification by the Supreme Court to the Superior Court
 42 and, where provided by rules of the Supreme Court, to the [County
 43 Courts and the] inferior courts; and

44 (e) In such causes as may be provided by law.

45 2. Appeals may be taken to the Appellate Division of the 46 Superior Court from the law and chancery divisions of the 47 Superior Court[, the County Courts] and in such other causes as 48 may be provided by law.

49 e. Article VI, Section VI, paragraphs 1, 2, 4, 5 and 7 be amended
 50 to read as follows:

51 1. The Governor shall nominate and appoint, with the advice
 52 and consent of the Senate, the Chief Justice and associate justices 53 of the supreme court, the judges of the superior court, [the 54 judges of the county courts] and the judges of the inferior courts
 55 with jurisdiction extending to more than one municipality. No
 56 nomination to such an office shall be sent to the Senate for confirma-
 57 tion until after 7 days' public notice by the Governor.

58 2. The justices of the supreme court[,] and the judges of the 59 superior court [and the judges of the county courts] shall each
 60 prior to his appointment have been admitted to the practice of law
 61 in this State for at least 10 years.

62 4. The justices of the supreme court[,] and the judges of the 63 superior court [and the judges of the county courts] shall be 64 subject to impeachment, and any judicial officer impeached shall not 65 exercise his office until acquitted. The judges of the superior court 66 [and the judges of the county courts] shall also be subject to 67 removal from office by the Supreme Court for such causes and in 68 such manner as shall be provided by law.

69 5. Whenever the Supreme Court shall certify to the Governor
 70 that it appears that any justice of the supreme court[,] or judge 71 of the superior court [or judge of the county court] is so in-
 72 capacitated as substantially to prevent him from performing his 73 judicial duties, the Governor shall appoint a commission of three 74 persons to inquire into the circumstances; and, on their recommen-
 75 dation, the Governor may retire the justice or judge from office, on 76 pension as may be provided by law.

77 7. The justices of the supreme court[,] and the judges of the 78 superior court [and the judges of the county courts] shall hold 79 no other office or position, of profit, under this State or the United 80 States. Any such justice or judge who shall become a candidate for 81 an elective public office shall thereby forfeit his judicial office.

82 f. Article XI be amended by adding thereto Section VI as 83 follows:

SECTION VI

84 When this amendment to the Constitution providing for the 85 abolition of the County Courts takes effect:

86 (a) All the jurisdiction, functions, powers and duties of the 87 County Court of each county, the judicial officers, clerks, employees 88 thereof, and the causes pending therein, and their files, shall be 89 transferred to the Superior Court. Until otherwise provided by 90 law, the judicial officers, surrogates and clerks of the County Courts
 91 and the employees of said officers, clerks, surrogates and courts,
 92 shall continue in the exercise of their duties as if this amendment
 93 had not been adopted. For the purposes of this paragraph, a cause
 94 shall be deemed to be pending notwithstanding that an adjudication
 95 has been entered therein, provided the time limited for appeal has 96 not expired or the adjudication reserves any party the right to 97 apply for further relief.

98 (b) All the functions, powers and duties conferred by the statute,
 99 rules or otherwise, upon the judges of the County Courts, shall be 100 transferred to and may be exercised by judges of the Superior
 101 Court until otherwise provided by law or rules of the Supreme 102 Court.

103 (c) Until otherwise provided by law, all county clerks shall 104 become clerks of the Law Division of the Superior Court and all
 105 surrogates shall become clerks of the Chancery Division (Probate 106 Part) of the Superior Court for their respective counties and shall 107 perform such duties and maintain such files and records on behalf
 108 of the Clerk of the Superior Court as may be required by law and 109 rule of court; and all fees payable to the county clerks and 110 surrogates prior to the effective date of this amendment shall con-

111 tinue to be so payable and be received for the use of their respective 112 counties until otherwise provided by law.

113 (d) The judges of the County Courts in office on the effective
114 date of this amendment shall be judges of the Superior Court. All
115 such judges who had acquired tenure on a County Court shall hold
116 office as a judge of the Superior Court during good behavior, with 117 all rights, and subject to all the provisions of the Constitution
118 affecting a judge of the Superior Court, as though they were 119 initially appointed to the Superior Court. All other judges of the 120 County Courts shall hold office as judges of the Superior Court, 121 each for the period of his term which remains unexpired on the 122 effective date of this amendment; and if reappointed, he shall hold 123 office during good behavior, with all the rights and subject to all
124 the provisions of the Constitution affecting a judge of the Superior
125 Court as though he were initially appointed to the Superior Court.

1 2. When this proposed amendment to the Constitution is finally
2 agreed to, pursuant to Article IX, paragraph 1 of the Constitution,
3 it shall be submitted to the people at the next general election
4 occurring more than 3 months after such final agreement and be
5 published at least once in at least one newspaper of each county
6 designated by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the 7 General Assembly and the Secretary of State, not less than 3
8 months prior to said general election.

1 3. This proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be sub-
2 mitted to the people at said election in the following manner and 3 form:

4 There shall be printed on each official ballot to be used at such 5 general election, the following:

6 a. In every municipality in which voting machines are not used,
7 the following legend shall immediately precede the question:

8 If you favor the proposition printed below make a cross (X),
9 plus (+) or check (✓) in the square opposite the word "Yes." If 10 you are opposed thereto make a cross (X), plus (+) or check (✓)
11 in the square opposite the word "No."

12 b. In every municipality the following question:

	Yes.	INCORPORATION OF THE COUNTY COURTS INTO THE SUPERIOR COURT Shall the amendment to Article VI and Article XI of the Constitution to incor- porate the existing County Courts into the Superior Court, transfer their juris- diction and pending causes to the Su- perior Court, and appoint their judges to the superior court, be approved?
	No.
