TRENTON, N.J. 08625

Release: FRIDAY, FEB. 22, 1985

Governor Thomas H. Kean has signed legislation which authorizes the Child Support Unit in the Department of Human Services to obtain income executions on unemployment insurance benefits to enforce child support orders.

The bill, S-1972, was sponsored by State Senator Donald T. DiFrancesco, R-Union. It brings New Jersey statutes into compliance with Federal law governing child support.

The Governor also signed the following bills:

S-596, sponsored by State Senator S. Thomas Gagliano, R-Monmouth, which directs local school districts to establish policies which would allow military recruiters the same access to school facilities as is provided to educational and occupational recruiters.

S-534, sponsored by State Senator Wayne Dumont, Jr., R-Warren, which provides for the inclusion of budgeted free balances (surplus) and miscellaneous revenue in the calculation of school district budget caps. Under the bill, cap allowances would be computed as they currently are, but would be based on the district's adjusted net current expense budget per pupil after including the surplus and miscellaneous revenue.

S-1306, sponsored by State Senator Joseph Hirkala, D-Passaic, which provides that a housing police officer shall, under certain circumstances, have all the powers conferred by the law on police officers, so long as the housing police officer has completed full training as required by the Police Training Commission, and qualifies annually in the use of a weapon.
