TRENTON, N.J. 08625

Release: FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1985

Governor Thomas H. Kean today signed legislation increasing the amount of funds which can be expended for funeral and burial expenses for a foster child or one receiving welfare assistance.

The legislation, A-2846, was sponsored by Assemblywoman Marlene Ford, D-Ocean.

Currently, the maximum payment for such expenses is $550. The bill, effective in 30 days, increases that amount to a sum based on the average cost of a funeral and burial in the area.

Other bills signed by Kean include:

A-1929, sponsored by Assemblyman Anthony Marsella, D-Camden, to permit the Department of Energy to expend $1 million to renovate public buildings in a program to reduce energy consumption. The $1 million is in unexpended bond funds originally allocated to conduct energy audits of State buildings.

A-1963, sponsored by Assemblyman John Doyle, D-Ocean, to require designated parking spaces for handicapped persons at multiple dwellings with handicapped residents.

A-2764, sponsored by Assemblyman Paul Cuprowski, D-Hudson, to increase the annual pension of a minor child of a deceased member of the Jersey City Retirement System from $600 to $2,500.

A-3762, sponsored by Assemblyman Joseph Charles, D-Hudson, to reactivate the pension account of a municipal court judge in Union City, who had retired from public service and was re-employed within four years.
