Trenton, N.J.

Governor Thomas H. Kean today signed legislation to permit the Boards of Freeholders in Essex and Hudson counties to appoint aides who would serve at the pleasure of the Board and in the unclassified Civil Service.

The legislation, A-2689, was sponsored by Assemblyman Harry McEnroe, D-Essex.

The bill restricts such appointive power to boards in first class counties operating under the Optional County Charter Law.

Kean also signed the following bills:

A-2874, sponsored by Assemblyman Nicholas Felice, R-Bergen, to appropriate $30,000 to finance the relocation of the historic Cadmus House in Fair Lawn. The 168-year-old house was once the residence of Lt. Andrew Cadmus who was captured by the British during the Revolution in his attempt to defend the community.

S-1227, sponsored by Senator Matthew Feldman, D-Bergen, which extends eligibility for enrollment in the New Jersey Alternate Benefit Program Pension System to non academic employees of State and county colleges.

SJR-15, sponsored by Senator Raymond Lesniak, D-Union, which designates the week of December 9 as "Human Rights Week" in New Jersey.

A-1715, sponsored by Assemblyman C. William Haines, R-Burlington, to add tree and shrub seeds to the other seed types currently regulated by State law.
