OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

CONTACT: PAUL WOLCOTT

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1982

Governor Thomas H. Kean has signed the following bills:

A-1986, sponsored by Assemblyman Raymond Lesniak, D-Union, which exempts minors who are participating in Junior Achievement programs from the employment restrictions relating to specific occupations, hazardous conditions or the use of certain machinery. Junior Achievement is a private economic education program involving some 3,500 New Jersey students each year. The exemptions provided for in this bill will allow participants, supervised by counsellors from business and industry, to participate in registered apprenticeship programs and other cooperative education programs.

A-663, sponsored by Assemblywoman Barbara F. Kalik, D-Burlington, which increases the type of debt obligations which can be used as collateral or security by institutions now holding government funds on deposit.

A-535, sponsored by Assemblyman John O. Bennett, which permits local harbor and waterfront commissions to act of expenditures leases and property transfers up to $2,500 without governing body approval. The current level is $500.
