1 THE COURT: This is the matter State vs.
2 Pablo Machado. Can I have appearances of counsel.

3 MS. GLASER: Cindy Glaser, assistant
4 prosecutor appearing for state. I'm covering for Nick
5 Sewitch.

6 MR. NASSIF: George Nassif on behalf of
7 Mr. Machado.

8 THE COURT: Counsel, first of all, keep in
9 mind that we have an interpreter helping us. So, speak
10 not only clearly, but slowly. I have reviewed the 11 terms of the plea agreement in this matter together
12 with the presentence report, and subject to any 13 arguments of counsel or any additions, deletions, or 14 corrections to the presentence report, I am inclined to 15 accept the terms of the agreement.

16 So, Mr. Nassif, I'll hear from you first.

17 MR. NASSIF: Yes, Judge, I've also gone over
18 the presentence report.

19 THE COURT: Slowly, Mr. Nassif.

20 MR. NASSIF: I would just ask that your Honor
21 sentence Mr. Machado according to the negotiated plea.
22 I will submit. Thank you, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Machado, do you want
24 to say anything before I sentence you?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I am asking forgiveness for

1 the crime that I committed and to please have mercy on
2 me so that I could get out on the street to be with my
3 family for the holiday.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Glaser.

5 MS. GLASER: Thank you, your Honor. We would
6 ask that the Court impose a sentence as conditioned
7 within the plea agreement, and we submit to the Court.

8 THE COURT: Counsel, again, I've reviewed the 9 plea agreement and the presentence report. I'm 10 satisfied that the agreement is fair and in the 11 interests of justice. There are certain aggravating
12 and mitigating factors that I have found that will be 13 set forth on the judgment of conviction in the 14 interests of time. At this point, I'll simply order
15 that as to Count Five of the indictment, the defendant
16 is sentenced to a term of probation of three years with 17 the following conditions. He is to serve 178 days in 18 the Adult Correction Center. He has credit for 178
19 days, time served. He is to submit to random urine
20 monitoring during probation. He is to maintain
21 employment during probation, and he is to testify
22 truthfully in the matter of State vs. Nunez if he is 23 called upon to testify. He's ordered to pay the 24 mandatory minimum fines and penalties, which will also 25 be set forth on the judgment of conviction. The

1 remaining counts and charges are dismissed.

2 The defendant has 45 days to appeal. He must
3 report to probation upon his release from the Adult
4 Correction Center today.

5 Counsel, any questions?

6 MR. NASSIF: No questions, Judge.

7 THE COURT: Ms. Glaser?

8 MS. GLASER: Thank you, Judge. No questions.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.
