KATHRYN FORSYTH

Governor Brendan Byrne signed the following bills before leaving for the Bar Association Convention in San Francisco:

S-1519, sponsored by Senator Steven Perskie (D-Atlantic) which permits casino hotel employees to commence employment immediately upon filing an application for full licensure.

The employee will be granted a temporary permit subject to revocation at any time by the Casino Control Commission. Currently, employees must be licensed before commencing employment.

S-1149, sponsored by Senator John Russo (D-Ocean), which permits a former member of the Public Employees Retirement System who was employed and a municipal superintendent of public works for 15 years but who retired to re-enroll in the system provided he is re-employed by the same employer within six months following his retirement.

The bill provides that the employee return to the retirement system the amount of retirement allowance he received, with interest, during the period of his retirement.

In addition, he would receive no credit for the period during which he was in retirement and his rate of contribution would be the same as that established for him prior to retirement.

A-2253, sponsored by Assemblyman John Paul Doyle (D-Ocean), which extends the deadline for certain local boards of education to submit their bond proposals to the Commissioner of Education in order to receive supplemental school building aid pursuant to the "Additional State School Building Aid Act of 1978" from 18 months to two years.

On June 3, 1980, the Governor signed legislation extending that time period from one year to eighteen months.
