STATEMENT

This bill has been drafted by the Division of Law Revision of the Legislative Services Agency in furtherance of its duty to conduct a continuous examination of the general and permanent statutory law of this State.

The sections to be repealed by this bill concern cities of the first class. Jersey City and Newark are the only first class cities in this State. Each of these cities has adopted Mayor-Council Plan C under the Optional Municipal Charter Law, and these sections are no longer applicable to them. The retention of these sections as part of the general and statutory law of this State is no longer necessary.

ASSEMBLY MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 1060

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: JANUARY 9, 1979

This bill has been drafted by the Division of Law Revision of the Legislative Services Agency in furtherance of its duty to conduct a continuous examination of the general and permanent statutory law of this State.

The sections to be repealed by this bill concern cities of the first class. Jersey City and Newark are the only first class cities in this State. Each of these cities has adopted Mayor-Council Plan C under the Optional Municipal Charter Law, and these sections are no longer applicable to them. The retention of these sections as part of the general and statutory law of this State is no longer necessary.

The sections repealed deal specifically with the following:
