2 Civil service police and fire reemployment lists include former
3 police officers and firefighters who have resigned in good standing
4 and whose reemployment is certified by the appointing authority as
5 in the best interest of the service. Police and fire reemployment
6 lists have unlimited duration.

7 Since current law does not specifically establish a sheriff's
8 officer reemployment list, the Civil Service Commission places
9 former sheriff's officers on regular reemployment lists which expire
10 after three years. This bill establishes special sheriff's officers
11 reemployment lists similar to police and fire reemployment lists. It
12 is the sponsor's intent that sheriff's officer reemployment lists also 13 be of unlimited duration.

14 The bill is retroactive to January 1, 2002.

STATEMENT TO

ASSEMBLY, No. 3391

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: SEPTEMBER 18, 2014

The Assembly Law and Public Safety Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Assembly Bill No. 3391.

As amended and reported by the committee, Assembly Bill No. 3391 establishes civil service sheriff's officer reemployment lists.

Civil service regular reemployment lists are comprised of former permanent civil service employees who resigned in good standing, received a general resignation, retired, or were voluntarily demoted, who timely requested reemployment and whose reemployment was certified by the appointing authority as being in the best interests of the service. Regular reemployment lists are valid for three years, unless extended by the commission to a maximum of four years.

Civil service police and fire reemployment lists include former police officers and firefighters who have resigned in good standing and whose reemployment is certified by the appointing authority as in the best interest of the service. Police and fire reemployment lists have unlimited duration.

Since current law does not specifically establish a sheriff's officer reemployment list, the Civil Service Commission places former sheriff's officers on regular reemployment lists which expire after three years. This bill establishes special sheriff's officers reemployment lists similar to police and fire reemployment lists. It is the understanding of the committee that a sheriff's officer reemployment list would also be of unlimited duration. The bill is retroactive to January 1, 2002.

The committee made a technical amendment to the bill.

DATED: DECEMBER 11, 2014

The Senate Law and Public Safety Committee reports favorably Senate Bill No. 2469.

Senate Bill No. 2469 establishes civil service sheriff's officer reemployment lists.

Civil service regular reemployment lists are comprised of former permanent civil service employees who resigned in good standing, received a general resignation, retired, or were voluntarily demoted, who timely requested reemployment and whose reemployment was certified by the appointing authority as being in the best interests of the service. Regular reemployment lists are valid for three years, unless extended by the commission to a maximum of four years.

Civil service police and fire reemployment lists include former police officers and firefighters who have resigned in good standing and whose reemployment is certified by the appointing authority as in the best interest of the service. Police and fire reemployment lists have unlimited duration.

Since current law does not specifically establish a sheriff's officer reemployment list, the Civil Service Commission places former sheriff's officers on regular reemployment lists which expire after three years. This bill establishes special sheriff's officers reemployment lists similar to police and fire reemployment lists. It is the sponsor's intent that a sheriff's officer reemployment list would also be of unlimited duration. The bill is retroactive to January 1, 2002.

As reported by the committee, this bill is identical to Assembly Bill No. 3391, also reported by the committee on this same date.
