ASSEMBLY MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

ASSEMBLY, No. 2255

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 20, 1976

Assembly Bill No. 2255 would permit a municipality to appoint to the office of municipal treasurer a nonresident of the municipality. Several municipal officers are already exempted from the residency requirement including those of counsel, attorney, engineer, health officer, auditor, comptroller, appointed tax collector, elected tenured assessor, appointed tax assessor and member of a board of assessors, all according to the provisions of N. J. S. 40A:9-1. The office of director of public safety is exempted pursuant to N. J. S. 40A:9-1.1 The committee felt that permitting municipalities to exempt municipal treasurers from such requirement was within the parameters established by these already permitted residency exemption

ANNE BURNS

Governor Brendan Byrne today signed into law A-2255, sponsored by Assemblyman James J. Barry, Jr. (R-Morris), which permits a municipality to appoint a non-resident to the office of municipal treasurer.

Several municipal officers are already exempted from the residency requirement under New Jersey Statute 40A:9-1.

According to the New Jersey League of Municipalities, this legislation will allow municipalities to jointly provide for a municipal treasurer under the requirements of the Inter-Local Services Act.
