STATEMENT

24 This bill prohibits the use of coupons, price reductions, and price
25 rebates in connection with the sale or offer for sale of tobacco and 26 vapor products to consumers at retail, including online coupons and 27 promotional discount codes. “Tobacco product” is defined to 28 include cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, and tobacco in any other
29 form; and “vapor product” is defined to include electronic smoking
30 devices and the vapor cartridges used in or with the devices. The 31 prohibition established under the bill would not apply to coupons
32 and discounts for smoking cessation products approved by the 33 federal Food and Drug Administration.

34 A violation of this prohibition will be punishable by a civil
35 penalty of not less than $250 for a first violation, not less than $500
36 for a second violation, and $1,000 for a third or subsequent 37 violation, which will be paid into the treasury of the municipality in 38 which the violation occurred. Additionally, a licensed tobacco
39 retail dealer found to have committed a violation would, following a 40 hearing, be subject to an additional administrative penalty or 41 suspension of the dealer’s license; the license would be subject to 42 revocation following a second violation. Penalties imposed under 43 the bill will be in addition to any other penalties that may apply for 44 the offense.

SENATE HEALTH, HUMAN SERVICES AND SENIOR CITIZENS COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 1647

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: SEPTEMBER 10, 2019

The Senate Health, Human Services and Senior Citizens Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Senate Bill No. 1647.

As amended by the committee, this bill prohibits the use of coupons, price reductions, and price rebates in connection with the sale or offer for sale of tobacco and vapor products to consumers at retail, including online coupons and promotional discount codes. “Tobacco product” is defined to include cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, and tobacco in any other form; and “vapor product” is defined to include electronic smoking devices and the vapor cartridges used in or with the devices. The prohibition established under the bill would not apply to coupons and discounts for smoking cessation products approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration or to coupons and discounts for medical cannabis dispensed to or on behalf of a registered qualifying patient by a medical cannabis dispensary or clinical registrant. Nothing in the bill is to be construed to impose liability on news media that accept or publish advertising that include coupons, price reductions, or price rebates that may violate the provisions of the bill.

A violation of the prohibition established by the bill will be punishable by a civil penalty of not less than $250 for a first violation, not less than $500 for a second violation, and $1,000 for a third or subsequent violation, which will be paid into the treasury of the municipality in which the violation occurred. Additionally, a licensed tobacco retail dealer found to have committed a violation would, following a hearing, be subject to an additional administrative penalty or suspension of the dealer’s license; the license would be subject to revocation following a second violation. Penalties imposed under the bill will be in addition to any other penalties that may apply for the offense.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS:

The committee amendments clarify that the provisions of the bill will not apply to medical cannabis, paraphernalia, and related supplies dispensed to or on behalf of a registered qualifying patient.

The committee amendments provide that nothing in the bill will be construed to impose liability on news media that accept or publish advertising that violates the provisions of the bill.

The committee amendments revise the current exception that applies to smoking cessation products to include all coupons, price reductions, and price rebates, not just online coupons and promotional discount codes.
