8 (b) Initial determination.—A representative designated by the execu-9 tive director, and hereinafter referred to as a deputy, shall promptly examine 10 the claim and, on the basis of the facts found by him, shall either determine 11 whether or not such claim is valid, and if valid, the week with respect to 12 which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and the 13 maximum duration thereof, or shall refer such claim or any question in-14 volved therein to an appeal tribunal or to the board of review, which shall 15 make its determinations with respect thereto in accordance with the pro-16 cedure described in subsection (c) of this section, except that in any case in 17 which the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions 18 of section five (d) of this act, the deputy shall promptly transmit his full 19 findings of fact with respect to that subsection to the board of review, which, 20 on the basis of the evidence submitted and such additional evidence as it 21 may require, shall affirm, modify, or set aside such findings of fact and 22 transmit to the deputy a decision upon the issues involved under that sub-23 section. The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and any other in-24 terested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. Unless the claim-25 ant or any such interested party, within five calendar days after the de-26 livery of such notification, or within seven calendar days after such notifi-27 cation was mailed to his last-known address, files an appeal from such 28 decision, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in 29 accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to 30 the period prior to the final determination of the board of review, shall be 31 paid only after such determination; provided, that if an appeal tribunal 32 affirms a decision of a deputy, or the board of review affirms a decision of 33 an appeal tribunal, allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless 34 of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but if such decision is finally 35 reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid.

36 (c) Appeals.—Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after 37 affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm 38 or modify the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. The parties

39 shall be duly notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons 40 therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the board of re-41 view, unless within ten days after the date of notification or mailing of such 42 decision, further appeal is initiated pursuant to subsection (e) of this sec-43 tion.

44 (d) Appeal tribunals.—To hear and decide disputed claims, the executive 45 director with the approval of the commission shall establish one or more 46 impartial appeal tribunals consisting in each case of either a salaried ex-46½ aminer or a body consisting of three members, one of whom shall 47 be a salaried examiner, who shall serve as chairman, one of whom shall be 48 a representative of employers and the other of whom shall be a representa-49 tive of employees; each of the latter two members shall serve at the pleas-50 ure of the commission and be paid a fee of not more than twenty dollars 51 ($20.00) per day of active service on such tribunal plus necessary expenses, 52 No person shall participate on behalf of the commission in any case in which 53 he is an interested party. The executive director may designate alternates 54 to serve in the absence or disqualification of any member of an appeal tri-55 bunal. The chairman shall act alone in the absence or disqualification of 56 any other member and his alternates. In no case shall the hearings proceed 57 unless the chairman of the appeal tribunal is present.

58 (e) Board of review.—The board of review may on its own motion affirm, 59 modify, or set aside any decision of an appeal tribunal on the basis of the 60 evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional 61 evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate fur-62 ther appeals before it. The board of review shall permit such further appeal 63 by any of the parties interested in a decision of an appeal tribunal which is 64 not unanimous and by the deputy whose decision has been overruled or 65 modified by an appeal tribunal. The board of review may remove to itself 66 or transfer to another appeal tribunal the proceedings on any claim pend-67 ing before an appeal tribunal. Any proceeding so removed to the board of 68 review shall be heard by a quorum thereof in accordance with the require-

69 ments in subsection (c) of this section. The board of review shall 70 promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

71 (f) Procedure.—The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, 72 the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers, and 73 the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with rules pre-74 scribed by the board of review for determining the rights of the parties, 75 whether or not such rules conform to common law or statutory rules of evi-76 dence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record 77 shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All 78 testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded, but need 79 not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

80 (g) Witness fees.—Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall 81 be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the commission. Such fees and all expenses 82 of proceedings involving disputed claims shall be deemed a part of the ex-83 pense of administering this act.

84 (h) Appeal to courts.—Any decision of the board of review in the ab-
85 sence of an appeal therefrom as herein provided shall become final ten days
86 after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof 87 shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby 88 has exhausted his remedies before the board of review as provided by this 89 act. The board of review shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial ac-90 tion involving any such decision, and may be represented in any such 91 judicial action by any qualified attorney who may be a regular salaried em-92 ployee of the board of review or has been designated by it for that pur-93 pose, or at the board of review's request, by the Attorney-General.

94 (i) Court review.—Within ten days after the decision of the board of 95 review has become final, any party aggrieved thereby may secure judicial 96 review thereof by writ of certiorari directed to the board of review, in which 97 action any other party to the proceeding before the board of review shall 98 be made a defendant.

57 amended, or similar payments under any act of Congress; provided, that 58 if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be 59 due under this chapter, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if 60 otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration.]

62 received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment com-63 pensation law of any other State or of the United States; provided, that if 63 the appropriate agency of such other State or of the United States finally 64 determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this dis-

19 the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of 20 subsection (d) of section 43:21-5 of this Title, the deputy shall promptly

131 of review for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not such rules 132 conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical 133 rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all pro-134 ceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing 135 upon a disputed claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless 136 the disputed claim is further appealed.

137 (g) Witness fees. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall 138 be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the [commission] director. Such fees

139 and all expenses of proceedings involving disputed claims shall be deemed a 140 part of the expense of administering this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.).

141 (h) Appeal to courts. Any decision of the board of review in the ab-
142 sence of an appeal therefrom as herein provided shall become final ten days
143 after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof 144 shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has 145 exhausted his remedies before the board of review as provided by this chap-146 ter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.). The board of review shall be deemed to be a 147 party to any judicial action involving any such decision, and may be repre-148 sented in any such judicial action by any qualified attorney who may be a 149 regular salaried employee of the board of review or has been designated by 150 it for that purpose, or at the board of review's request, by the Attorney-151 General.

152 (i) Court review. Within ten days after the decision of the board of 153 review has become final, any party aggrieved thereby may secure judicial re-154 view thereof by [writ of certiorari directed to the board of review] a pro-155 ceeding in lieu of the prerogative writs, in which action any other party to 156 the proceeding before the board of review shall be made a defendant.

1 2. Section 43:21-16 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as fol-
2 lows:

3 43:21-16. (a) Whoever makes a false statement or representation know-4 ing it to be false or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to obtain or 5 increase any benefit or other payment under this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et 6 seq.), either for himself or for any other person, shall be liable to a fine of 7 not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00), to 8 be recovered in an action at law in the name of the [commission] Division 9 of Employment Security of the Department of Labor and Industry of the 10 State of New Jersey, said fine when recovered to be paid to the unemploy-11 ment compensation auxiliary fund for the use of said fund; and each such 12 false statement or representation or failure to disclose a material fact shall 13 constitute a separate offense.

14 (b) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of an employing unit or 15 any other person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it 16 to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to prevent or 17 reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or to avoid 18 becoming or remaining subject hereto or to avoid or reduce any contribution 19 or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter (R. S.
20 43:21-1 et seq.), or who wilfully fails or refuses to make any such contribu-21 tions or other payment or to furnish any reports required hereunder or to 22 produce or permit the inspection or copying of records as required hereunder, 23 shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) nor more 24 than two hundred dollars ($200.00), to be recovered in an action at law in 25 the name of the [commission], Division of Employment Security of the De-26 partment of Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey. Said fine when 27 recovered to be paid to the unemployment compensation auxiliary fund for 28 the use of said fund; and each such false statement or representation or fail-29 ure to disclose a material fact, and each day of such failure or refusal shall 30 constitute a separate offense.

31 (c) Any person who shall willfully violate any provision of this chap-32 ter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.) or any rule or regulation thereunder, the violation 33 of which is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the 34 terms of this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.), and for which a penalty is 35 neither prescribed herein nor provided by any other applicable statute, shall 36 be liable to a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) nor more than two 37 hundred dollars ($200.00), to be recovered in an action at law in the name of 38 the [commission] Division of Employment Security of the Department of 39 Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey, said fine when recovered 40 to be paid to the unemployment compensation auxiliary fund for the use of 41 said fund; and each day such violation continues shall be deemed to be a 42 separate offense.

43 (d) When it is determined by the deputy a representative or repre-44 sentatives designated by the director of the division that any person, by 45 reason of the nondisclosure or misrepresentation by him or by another, of a 46 material fact (irrespective of whether or not such nondisclosure or mis-47 representation was known or fraudulent) has received any sum as benefits 48 under this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.) while any conditions for the re-49 ceipt of benefits imposed by this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.) were not ful-50 filled in his case, or while he was disqualified from receiving benefits, such 51 person shall be liable, if the director 52 in his discretion directs recovery, either be liable to have such sum de-53 ducted from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter (R. S.
 54 43:21-1 et seq.) or shall be liable to repay to the commission division 55 for the unemployment compensation fund, a sum equal to the amount so re-

 64 termination, such determination shall be final.

1 3. This act shall take effect July first, one thousand nine hundred and 2 fifty.

STATEMENT

This bill proposes to amend certain technical aspects of sections six and sixteen of the Unemployment Compensation Law. The purpose is to facilitate administration and, particularly, to speed up the payment of benefits to eligible claimants. It is to be noted that provision is made for proper notice to all interested and affected parties.

The amendment to section six enables the division to separate the basic monetary determination from the factual or weekly determination. The monetary determination simply provides the fiscal factors for the payment of benefits, including the total amount for the benefit year and the weekly benefit rate. Experience has demonstrated that about nineteen percentum (19%) of the individuals who assert claims never pick up benefits in the benefit year. As to that nineteen percentum (19%), the work of the division will be completed when the monetary determination is made and notice thereof given to the claimant. Under section six as it now stands, the agency is required to include in the initial determination some matters which are simply not determinable at the time that determination is made; for example, the week when benefits shall first commence. Under the proposed amendment to section six, determinations for compensable weeks in the benefit year are made as claimant establishes his eligibility with respect thereto. A long time may elapse between the basic monetary determination and the determination covering the first compensable week.

The separation of the basic determinations from the weekly determinations, it is felt, will eliminate a lot of misunderstanding on the part of both employers and claimants and will also eliminate a lot of unnecessary correspondence and communications which at the present time arise because of that misunderstanding.

It is the design of these amendments to have the basic monetary determination made at the central office and the weekly determinations made at local offices where the facts of eligibility, disqualifications, etc., are ascertained. It is also felt that this will cut down to a great degree the amount of intra-agency correspondence and communication.

The proposed amendment to section sixteen is to mesh in with the proposed amendments to section six.

64 (5) for the two weeks immediately following detachment from any 65 maritime services performed under shipping articles;

66 (6) for any week with respect to which or part of which he has received 67 or is seeking disability benefits under the Temporary Disability Benefits Law;

68 (7) for any period of disability commencing prior to January first, one 69 thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, or for any period of disability com-70 mencing while such individual is a "covered individual" as defined in subsec-71 tion three (b) of the Temporary Disability Benefits Law (chapter 110, P. L.
72 1948), or after the expiration of twenty-six consecutive weeks during which 73 the individual has been unemployed [and ineligible or disqualified for bene-74 fits for such unemployment].

75 (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the director 76 may, to the extent that he deems efficient and economical, provide for con-77 solidated administration by one or more representatives or deputies of claims 78 made pursuant to subsection (f) of this section with those made pursuant to 79 article III (State plan) of the Temporary Disability Benefits Law.

1 3. Section 43:21-6 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as fol-
2 lows:

3 43:21-6. (a) Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with 4 such regulations as the Director of the Division of Employment Security of 5 the Department of Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey may ap-6 prove. Each employer shall post and maintain on his premises printed no-7 tices of his subject status, of such design, in such numbers, and at such places 8 as the director of the division may determine to be necessary to give notice 9 thereof to persons in the employer's service. Each employer shall give to each 10 individual at the time he becomes unemployed a printed copy of benefit in-11 structions. Both the aforesaid notices and instructions shall be supplied by 12 the division to employers without cost to them.

13 (b) (1) Procedure for making determinations with respect to benefit 14 years commencing prior to January first, one thousand nine hundred and 15 fifty-three. (A) Initial determinations. The director of the division shall 16 designate a representative or representatives to promptly examine the claims 17 and to determine which claims do and which claims do not meet the require-18 ments of section 4 (e); and as to those claims meeting the requirements of sec-19 tion 4 (e) to further determine the weekly benefit rates and the maximum total 20 benefits payable. Each claimant shall promptly be notified of the determina-21 tion of his claim.

22     [(2)] (B) Weekly determinations. The director of the division shall as-23 sign a representative or representatives to each local claims office for the pur-24 pose of making weekly determinations (except those under subsections 4 (f) 25 and 5 (d)) in the course of the benefit year, in accordance with the initial deter-26 mination of a valid claim. Whenever a determination of eligibility shall be 27 made with respect to the first week of the benefit year for which benefits are 28 claimed, the claimant, the last employing unit and all employers in the base 29 year shall be promptly notified of such determination. Whenever a determina-30 tion of ineligibility or disqualification shall be made with respect to any week 31 of the benefit year, the claimant shall be promptly notified of such determina-32 tion.

33     [(3)] (C) Any claimant or any interested entity or person may file an 34 appeal from any determination under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsec-35 tion within five calendar days after the delivery of notification, or within seven 36 calendar days after the mailing of notification, of such determination. Un-37 less such an appeal is filed such determination shall be final and benefits shall 38 be paid or denied in accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits 39 with respect to the period covered by the appeal shall be payable only after 40 a determination of entitlement by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for 41 periods pending an appeal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits 42 accrue; provided, that insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal from 43 a determination to the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the pro-
44 visions of section 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments thereof 45 or supplements thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal shall be 46 withheld only for the period of disqualification as provided for in said section, 47 and notwithstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided by this act

48 shall be paid for the period subsequent to such period of disqualification; 49 and provided, also, that if there are two determinations of entitlement, bene-50 fits for the period covered by such determinations shall be paid regardless of 51 any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account shall 52 be charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

53 (2) Procedure for making initial determinations with respect to benefit 54 years commencing on or after January first, one thousand nine hundred and 55 fifty-three.

56 A representative or representatives designated by the director of the di-57 vision and hereinafter referred to as a "deputy" shall promptly examine the 58 claim, and shall notify the most recent employing unit and, successively as 59 necessary, each employer in inverse chronological order during the base year.
60 Such notification shall require said employing unit and employer to furnish 61 such information to the deputy as may be necessary to determine the claim-62 ant's eligibility and his benefit rights with respect to the employer in ques-63 tion, and such notification shall also provide the most recent chargeable em-64 ployer in the base year with the name and address of the most recent employ-65 ing unit of the claimant. All information transmitted to the director or his 66 deputy pursuant to this section shall be privileged and shall not be made the 67 subject matter or basis in any action of slander or libel in any court.

68 In his discretion, the director may appoint special deputies to make initial 69 or subsequent determinations under subsections 4(f) and 5(d) of this chapter.

70 If any employer or employing unit fails to respond to the request for in-71 formation within seven days after the mailing of such request, the deputy may 72 rely entirely on information from other sources, including an affidavit to the 73 best of the knowledge and belief of the claimant with respect to his wages 74 and time worked.

75 The deputy shall promptly make an initial determination based upon the 76 available information. The initial determination shall show the weekly benefit 77

78 amount payable, the maximum duration of benefits with respect to the em-79 ployer to whom the determination relates, and also shall show whether the 80 claimant is ineligible or disqualified for benefits under the initial determina-81 tion. The claimant and the employer whose account may be charged for 82 benefits payable pursuant to said determination shall be promptly notified 83 thereof.

84 Whenever an initial determination is based upon information other than 85 that supplied by an employer because such employer failed to respond to the 86 deputy's request for information, such initial determination and any subse-
87 quent determination thereunder shall be incontestable by the noncomplying
88 employer, as to any charges to his employer's account because of benefits paid 89 prior to the close of the calendar week following the receipt of his reply. Such 90 initial determination shall be altered if necessary upon receipt of informa-91 tion from the employer, and any benefits paid or payable with respect to 92 weeks occurring subsequent to the close of the calendar week following the 93 receipt of the employer's reply shall be paid in accordance with such altered 93A initial determination.

94 The deputy shall issue a separate initial benefit determination with re-95 spect to each of the claimant's base year employers, starting with the most 96 recent employer and continuing as necessary in the inverse chronological 97 order of the claimant's last date of employment with each such employer. If 97A an appeal is taken from an initial determination as hereinafter provided by 97B any employer other than the first chargeable base-year employer, then such 97C appeal shall be limited in scope to include only one or more of the following 97D matters:

97E (A) the correctness of the benefit payments authorized to be made 97F under the determination;

97G (B) fraud in connection with the claim pursuant to which the initial 97H determination is issued; or

97r (C) the refusal of suitable work offered by the chargeable em-97r ployer filing the appeal.

98 The amount of benefits payable under an initial determination may be re-99 duced or canceled if necessary to avoid payment of benefits for a number of 100 weeks in excess of the maximum specified in paragraph (2) of subsection (d) 101 of section 43:21-3 of this Title.

102 Unless the claimant or any interested party within seven calendar days 103 after delivery of notification of an initial determination or within ten calendar 104 days after such notification was mailed to his or their last-known address and 105 addresses, files and appeal from such decision, such decision shall be final and 106 benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith, except for such de-107 terminations as may be altered in benefit amounts or duration as provided in 108 this paragraph. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period 109 covered by the appeal shall be payable only after a determination of entitle-110 ment by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for periods pending an ap-111 peal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits accrue; provided, that 112 insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal from a determination to 113 the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the provisions of section 114 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments thereof or supplements 115 thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal shall be withheld only 116 for the period of disqualification as provided for in said section, and not-117 withstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided by this act shall be 118 paid for the period subsequent to such period of disqualification; and pro- 119 vided, also, that if there are two determinations of entitlement, benefits for 120 the period covered by such determinations shall be paid regardless of any ap-121 peal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account shall be 121a charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

122 (3) Procedure for making initial determinations in certain cases of con-123 current employment, with respect to benefit years commencing on or after 124 January first, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

125        Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Title, if an individual shows 126 to the satisfaction of the deputy that there were at least thirteen weeks in his 127 base period in each of which he earned wages from two or more employers 128 totaling fifteen dollars ($15.00) or more but in each of which there was no 129 single employer from whom he earned as much as fifteen dollars ($15.00), 130 then such individual's claim shall be determined in accordance with the special 131 provisions of this paragraph. In such case, the deputy shall determine the 132 individual's eligibility for benefits, his average weekly wage, weekly benefit 133 rate and maximum total benefits as if all his base year employers were a single 134 employer. Such determination shall apportion the liability for benefit charges 135 thereunder to the individual's several base year employers so that each em-136 ployer's maximum liability for charges thereunder bears approximately the 137 same relation to the maximum total benefits allowed as the wages earned by 138 the individual from each employer during the base year bears to his total 139 wages earned from all employers during the base year. Such initial deter-140 mination shall also specify the individual's last date of employment within 141 the base year with respect to each base year employer, and such employers 142 shall be charged for benefits paid under said initial determination in the in-143 verse chronological order of such last dates of employment.

144        (4) Procedure for making subsequent determinations with respect to 145 benefit years commencing on or after January first, one thousand nine 146 hundred and fifty-three. The deputy shall make determinations with respect 147 to claims for benefits thereafter in the course of the benefit year in accord-148 ance with any initial determination allowing benefits, and under which bene-149 fits have not been exhausted, and each notification of a benefit payment shall 150 be a notificat'ion of an affirmative subsequent determination. The allowance 151 of benefits by the deputy on any such determination, or the denial of 152 benefits by the deputy on any such determination, shall be appealable in 153 the same manner and under the same limitations as is provided in the 153a case of initial determinations.

154 (c) Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after 155 affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or 156 modify the findings of fact and the determination. The parties shall be duly 157 notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which 158 shall be deemed to be the final decision of the board of review, unless within 159 ten days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further ap-160 peal is initiated pursuant to subsection (c) of this section.

161 (d) Appeal tribunals. To hear and decide disputed benefit claims, includ-
 162 ing appeals from determinations with respect to demands for refunds of bene-163 fits under section 43:21-16 (d) of this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.), the di-164 rector with the approval of the Commissioner of Labor and Industry shall es-165 tablish one or more impartial appeal tribunals consisting in each case of either 166 a salaried examiner or a body, consisting of three members, one of whom shall 167 be a salaried examiner, who shall serve as chairman, one of whom shall be a 168 representative of employers and the other of whom shall be a representative 169 of employees; each of the latter two members shall serve at the pleasure of 170 the commissioner and be paid a fee of not more than twenty dollars ($20.00) 171 per day of active service on such tribunal plus necessary expenses. No per-172 son shall participate on behalf of the division in any case in which he is an 173 interested party. The director may designate alternates to serve in the ab-
 174 sence or disqualification of any member of an appeal tribunal. The chairman 175 shall act alone in the absence or disqualification of any other member and 176 his alternates. In no case shall the hearings proceed unless the chairman of 177 the appeal tribunal is present.

178 (e) Board of review. The board of review may on its own motion affirm, 179 modify, or set aside any decision of an appeal tribunal on the basis of the 180 evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional 181 evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate further 182 appeals before it. The board of review shall permit such further appeal by any 183 of the parties interested in a decision of an appeal tribunal which is not unani-184 mous and from any determination which has been overruled or modified by 288 tion from employment by an employer on a substantially reduced schedule 289 of weekly hours due to lack of work, all weeks of substantially reduced 290 schedule within the base period and his wages therefor shall be disregarded in 291 computing his average weekly wage.

1 9. This act shall take effect January first, one thousand nine hundred and 2 fifty-three, except that the change in maximum weekly benefit amount as pro-3 vided in section 43:21-3 (c) (1) of the Revised Statutes as amended herein 4 shall apply with respect to benefit years beginning on and after July first, one 5 thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

STATEMENT

The purpose of this bill is to accomplish the recommendations of the commission appointed under 1951 Special Session Assembly Concurrent Resolution
 No. 1 for the purpose of studying New Jersey's employment security statutes.

This bill proposes the first comprehensive revision of the New Jersey Unemployment Compensation Law since its adoption in 1936. It is designed to accomplish the objectives long sought by those interested in establishing and developing New Jersey's employment security system as a social insurance program equitable to the economic interests of 1,900,000 covered workers and 45,000 subject employers.

Four objectives of the study commission are accomplished in this bill.
 They are:

1. Establishment of an adequate and equitable schedule of benefit payments for both unemployment and disability insurance purposes.

2. Simplification of the benefit formula to more properly reflect earning capacity and the use of the most recent earnings of claimants for the purpose of calculating the benefit rate.

3. Revision of wage reporting requirements so as to effect an improvement in controls over benefit payments, thus reducing improper claims and accelerating the re-employment of claimants.

4. Prompt payment of benefits.

Under this bill and another measure covering the Temporary Disability Benefits Law, the maximum weekly benefit rate is fixed for initial claims filed on and after July 1, 1952, at $30.00, an increase of $4.00 over the present $26.00 rate. The minimum weekly benefit rate continues at $10.00. Maximum duration of benefits continues at 26 weeks while the minimum is increased from 10 to 12½ weeks. It is proposed to make retroactive payments to claimants who have suffered another week of unemployment, for the waiting week. A system of establishing duration of three weeks of benefits for each four weeks of employment in the preceding 52 weeks is used. The wage base for the calculation of entitlement to benefits has been considerably broadened. The bill provides that 66⅔ per cent of the average weekly wage of the claimant shall be used for the purpose of determining the weekly benefit rate. Under the present complicated formula in the New Jersey unemployment and disability insurance laws, the actual replacement is approximately 59 per cent.

Further decentralization of unemployment compensation operations will be required. The new system provides that employers furnish, upon request, current wage data to the Division of Employment Security, Department of Labor and Industry, when the agency receives a claim for benefits. This will eliminate the extensive and cumbersome wage recording system now used in this State for unemployment and disability insurance purposes and, at the same time, is designed to speed up the determination of a claimant's eligibility. Employers will be requested to provide both wage data and information as to the conditions of separation from employment at the one time. There are provisions so that the claimant's affidavit, to the best of his knowledge, as to wages received and time worked will be accepted by the Division of Employment Security and benefits paid on that statement in cases where employers fail to provide the requested information within a seven-day period. Employers will currently receive a copy of the benefit check so that they may have prompt knowledge of the unemployment status of their former worker at all times. Under the present system, months elapse before an employer receives knowledge of the actual payment of benefits to a separated employee. Benefits under this bill will be first charged against the last base year employer, who is the employer separating the worker. Subsequent charges will be made against the accounts of preceding employers in the base year.

Other changes include the qualifying requirement that in order to be eligible for benefits a claimant must have 17 weeks of employment at the rate of $15.00 weekly during the 52 weeks immediately preceding the filing of his claim. Once the rate is established, employment with preceding employers will be used for the purpose of obtaining maximum duration for claimants. The fraud provisions of the law have been strengthened and employers who fail to provide wage information upon request will be subject to a $5.00 penalty for each report they fail to submit.

This bill represents a constructive revision of the Unemployment Compensation Law of New Jersey.

2. Section 43:21-6 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

43:21-6. (a) Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the Director of the Division of Employment Security of the Department of Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey may approve. Each employer shall post and maintain on his premises printed notices of his subject status, of such design, in such numbers, and at such places as the director of the division may determine to be necessary to give notice thereof to persons in the employer's service. Each employer shall give to each individual at the time he becomes unemployed a printed copy of benefit instructions. Both the aforesaid notices and instructions shall be supplied by the division to employers without cost to them.

(b) (1) Procedure for making determinations with respect to benefit years commencing prior to January 1, 1953. (A) Initial determinations. The director of the division shall designate a representative or representatives to promptly examine the claims and to determine which claims do and which claims do not meet the requirements of section 4 (e); and as to those claims meeting the requirements of section 4 (e) to further determine the weekly benefit rates and the maximum total benefits payable. Each claimant shall promptly be notified of the determination of his claim.

(B) Weekly determinations. The director of the division shall assign a representative or representatives to each local claims office for the purpose of making weekly determinations (except those under subsections 4 (f) and 5 (d) in the course of the benefit year, in accordance with the initial determination of a valid claim. Whenever a determination of eligibility shall be made with respect to the first week of the benefit year for which benefits are claimed, the claimant, the last employing unit and all employers in the base year shall be promptly notified of such determination. Whenever a determination of ineligibility or disqualification shall be made with respect to any week of the benefit year, the claimant shall be promptly notified of such determination.

(C) Any claimant or any interested entity or person may file an appeal from any determination under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection within 5 calendar days after the delivery of notification, or within 7 calendar days after the mailing of notification, of such determination. Unless such an appeal is filed such determination shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period covered by the appeal shall be payable only after a determination of entitlement by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for periods pending an appeal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits accrue; provided, that insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal from a determination to the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the provisions of section 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments thereof or supplements thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal shall be withheld only for the period of disqualification as provided for in said section, and notwithstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided by this act shall be paid for the period subsequent to such period of disqualification; and provided, also, that if there are 2 determinations of entitlement, benefits for the period covered by such determination shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

(2) Procedure for making initial determinations with respect to benefit years commencing on or after January 1, 1953.

A representative or representatives designated by the director of the division and hereinafter referred to as a "deputy" shall promptly examine the claim, and shall notify the most recent employing unit and, successively as necessary, each employer in inverse chronological order during the base year. Such notification shall require said employing unit and employer to furnish such information to the deputy as may be necessary to determine the claimant's eligibility and his benefit rights with respect to the employer in question, and such notification shall also provide the most recent chargeable employer in the base year with the name and address of the most recent employing unit of the claimant.

In his discretion, the director may appoint special deputies to make initial or subsequent determinations under subsections 4 (f) and 5 (d) of this chapter.

If any employer or employing unit fails to respond to the request for information within 7 days after the mailing of such request, the deputy shall rely entirely on information from other sources, including an affidavit to the best of the knowledge and belief of the claimant with respect to his wages and time worked. Except in the event of fraud, if it is determined that any information in such affidavit is erroneous, no penalty shall be imposed on the claimant.

The deputy shall promptly make an initial determination based upon the available information. The initial determination shall show the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum duration of benefits with respect to the employer to whom the determination relates, and also shall show whether the claimant is ineligible or disqualified for benefits under the initial determination. The claimant and the employer whose account may be charged for benefits payable pursuant to said determination shall be promptly notified thereof.

Whenever an initial determination is based upon information other than that supplied by an employer because such employer failed to respond to the deputy's request for information, such initial determination and any subsequent determination thereunder shall be incontestable by the noncomplying employer, as to any charges to his employer's account because of benefits paid prior to the close of the calendar week following the receipt of his reply. Such initial determination shall be altered if necessary upon receipt of information from the employer, and any benefits paid or payable with respect to weeks occurring subsequent to the close of the calendar week following the receipt of the employer's reply shall be paid in accordance with such altered initial determination.

The deputy shall issue a separate initial benefit determination with respect to each of the claimant's base year employers, starting with the most recent employer and continuing as necessary in the inverse chronological order of the claimant's last date of employment with each such employer. If an appeal is taken from an initial determination as hereinafter provided by any employer other than the first chargeable base-year employer, then such appeal shall be limited in scope to include only 1 or more of the following matters:

(A) the correctness of the benefit payments authorized to be made under the determination;

(B) fraud in connection with the claim pursuant to which the initial determination is issued; or

(C) the refusal of suitable work offered by the chargeable employer filing the appeal.

The amount of benefits payable under an initial determination may be reduced or canceled if necessary to avoid payment of benefits for a number of weeks in excess of the maximum specified in subsection (d) of section 43:21-3 of this Title.

Unless the claimant or any interested party within 7 calendar days after delivery of notification of an initial determination or within 10 calendar days after such notification was mailed to his or their last-known address and addresses, files an appeal from such decision, such decision shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith, except for such determinations as may be altered in benefit amounts or duration as provided in this paragraph. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period covered by the appeal shall be payable only after a determination of entitlement by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for periods pending an appeal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits accrue; provided, that insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal from a determination to the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the provisions of section 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments thereof or supplements thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal shall be withheld only for the period of disqualification as provided for in said section, and notwithstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided by this act shall be paid for the period subsequent to such period of disqualification; and provided, also, that if there are 2 determinations of entitlement, benefits for the period covered by such determinations shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

(3) Procedure for making initial determinations in certain cases of concurrent employment, with respect to benefit years commencing on or after January 1, 1953.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Title, if an individual shows to the satisfaction of the deputy that there were at least 13 weeks in his base period in each of which he earned wages from 2 or more employers totaling $15.00 or more but in each of which there was no single employer from whom he earned as much as $15.00, then such individual's claim shall be determined in accordance with the special provisions of this paragraph. In such case, the deputy shall determine the individual's eligibility for benefits, his average weekly wage, weekly benefit rate and maximum total benefits as if all his base year employers were a single employer. Such determination shall apportion the liability for benefit charges thereunder to the individual's several base year employers so that each employer's maximum liability for charges thereunder bears approximately the same relation to the maximum total benefits allowed as the wages earned by the individual from each employer during the base year bears to his total wages earned from all employers during the base year. Such initial determination shall also specify the individual's last date of employment within the base year with respect to each base year employer, and such employers shall be charged for benefits paid under said initial determination in the inverse chronological order of such last dates of employment.

(4) Procedure for making subsequent determinations with respect to benefit years commencing on or after January 1, 1953. The deputy shall make determinations with respect to claims for benefits thereafter in the course of the benefit year in accordance with any initial determination allowing benefits, and under which benefits have not been exhausted, and each notification of a benefit payment shall be a notification of an affirmative subsequent determination. The allowance of benefits by the deputy on any such determination, or the denial of benefits by the deputy on any such determination, shall be ap-

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 264

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I am returning herewith for reconsideration and with my objections Assembly Bill No. 264.

Assembly Bill No. 264 amends the unemployment compensation law so as to provide for an increase in the maximum rate of weekly benefits from \$30.00 to \$35.00 per week effective as to claims made on or after October 1, 1955. I heartily approve of the objective of this bill although I regret the use of the fraction  $\frac{2}{5}$  instead of  $\frac{2}{3}$  in determining the benefit to be paid in excess of \$30.00.

When this bill was under consideration by the Legislature, it was pointed out that if the new rate were made applicable to existing claims, there would be a serious administrative problem because in those cases in which the maximum benefit was payable under existing law, the employer's report was not required to state the actual earnings of the employee concerned. With the increase in the maximum benefit payable, this further information would be essential to determine which employees are entitled to have their rate increased to the new maximum. In order to obviate this serious practical problem, amendments were made to the bill to incorporate the October date mentioned above. The amendments, however, in accomplishing that purpose, operate to create other difficulties. As the bill now stands, it provides that the act shall take effect October 1, 1955 "and shall apply only with respect to benefit years beginning on and after October 1, 1955". The bill, in its present form, would, if approved, eliminate provisions for the continued payment with respect to claims which ante-date October 1, 1955 and eliminate rights of review with respect to such prior claimants, with perhaps a resultant conflict with the requirements of federal law. It is estimated that there are about 65,000 persons whose benefit years will extend beyond the effective date provided

On page 2, section 1, line 34A, delete "(1)" and insert in lieu thereof "(2)".

On page 2, section 1, line 34A, after the word "individual" insert the words "whose benefit year commences on or after October 1, 1955, and".

1 4. Section 43:21-6 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

2 43:21-6. Claims for Benefits.

3 (a) Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such 4 regulations as the Director of the Division of Employment Security of the 5 Department of Labor and Industry of the State of New Jersey may approve.
6 Each employer shall post and maintain on his premises printed notices of 7 his subject status, of such design, in such numbers, and at such places as the 8 director of the division may determine to be necessary to give notice thereof 9 to persons in the employer's service. Each employer shall give to each indi-10 vidual at the time he becomes unemployed a printed copy of benefit instruc-11 tions. Both the aforesaid notices and instructions shall be supplied by the 12 division to employers without cost to them.

13 (b) (1) [Procedure for making determinations with respect to benefit 14 years commencing prior to January 1, 1953.

15 (A) Initial determinations. The director of the division shall designate 16 a representative or representatives to promptly examine the claims and to de-17 termine which claims do and which claims do not meet the requirements of 18 section 4(e); and as to those claims meeting the requirements of section 4(e) 19 to further determine the weekly benefit rates and the maximum total benefits 20 payable. Each claimant shall promptly be notified of the determination of 21 his claim.

22 (B) Weekly determinations. The director of the division shall assign a 23 representative or representatives to each local claims office for the purpose of 24 making weekly determinations (except those under subsections 4(f) and 5(d) 25 in the course of the benefit year, in accordance with the initial determination 26 of a valid claim. Whenever a determination of eligibility shall be made with 27 respect to the first week of the benefit year for which benefits are claimed, the 28 claimant, the last employing unit and all employers in the base year shall be 29 promptly notified of such determination. Whenever a determination of ineli-30 gibility or disqualification shall be made with respect to any week of the bene-31 fit year, the claimant shall be promptly notified of such determination.

32 (C) Any claimant or any interested entity or person may file an appeal 33 from any determination under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection 34 within 5 calendar days after the delivery of notification, or within 7 calendar 35 days after the mailing of notification, of such determination. Unless such 36 an appeal is filed such determination shall be final and benefits shall be paid 37 or denied in accordance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with 38 respect to the period covered by the appeal shall be payable only after a 39 determination of entitlement by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for 40 periods pending an appeal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits
41 accrue; provided, that insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal 42 from a determination to the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the 43 provisions of section 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments 44 thereof or supplements thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal 45 shall be withheld only for the period of disqualification as provided for in 46 said section, and notwithstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided 47 by this act shall be paid for the period subsequent to such period of disquali-48 fication; and provided, also that if there are 2 determinations of entitlement, 49 benefits for the period covered by such determination shall be paid regardless 50 of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account shall 51 be charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

52 (2) Procedure for making initial determinations with respect to benefit 53 years commencing on or after January 1, 1953.

54 A representative or representatives designated by the director of the 55 division and hereafter referred to as a "deputy" shall promptly examine 56 the claim, and shall notify the most recent employing unit and, successively 57 as necessary, each employer in inverse chronological order during the base 58 year. Such notification shall require said employing unit and employer to 59 furnish such information to the deputy as may be necessary to determine 60 the claimant's eligibility and his benefit rights with respect to the employer 61 in question, and such notification shall also provide the most recent charge-62 able employer in the base year with the name and address of the most recent 63 employing unit of the claimant.

64 In his discretion, the director may appoint special deputies to make initial 65 or subsequent determinations under subsections 4(f) and 5(d) of this chapter.

66 If any employer or employing unit fails to respond to the request for 67 information within 7 days after the mailing of such request, the deputy shall 68 rely entirely on information from other sources, including an affidavit to the 69 best of the knowledge and belief of the claimant with respect to his wages and 70 time worked. Except in the event of fraud, if it is determined that any in-71 formation in such affidavit is erroneous, no penalty shall be imposed on the 72 claimant.

73 The deputy shall promptly make an initial determination based upon 74 the available information. The initial determination shall show the weekly 75 benefit amount payable, the maximum duration of benefits with respect to the 76 employer to whom the determination relates, and also shall show whether 77 the claimant is ineligible or disqualified for benefits under the initial determi-78 nation. The claimant and the employer whose account may be charged for 79 benefits payable pursuant to said determination shall be promptly notified 80 thereof.

81 Whenever an initial determination is based upon information other than 82 that supplied by an employer because such employer failed to respond to the 83 deputy's request for information, such initial determination and any subse-
84 quent determination thereunder shall be incontestable by the noncomplying 85 employer, as to any charges to his employer's account because of benefits 86 paid prior to the close of the calendar week following the receipt of his re-87 ply. Such initial determination shall be altered if necessary upon receipt of 88 information from the employer, and any benefits paid or payable with respect 89 to weeks occurring subsequent to the close of the calendar week following the 90 receipt of the employer's reply shall be paid in accordance with such altered 91 initial determination.

92 The deputy shall issue a separate initial benefit determination with re-93 spect to each of the claimant's base year employers, starting with the most 94 recent employer and continuing as necessary in the inverse chronological

95 order of the claimant's last date of employment with each such employer.
96 If an appeal is taken from an initial determination as hereinafter provided 97 by any employer other than the first chargeable base-year employer, then 98 such appeal shall be limited in scope to include only 1 or more of the following 99 matters:

100 (A) the correctness of the benefit payments authorized to be made 101 under the determination;

102 (B) fraud in connection with the claim pursuant to which the initial 103 determination is issued; or

104 (C) the refusal of suitable work offered by the chargeable employer 105 filing the appeal.

106 The amount of benefits payable under an initial determination may be 107 reduced or canceled if necessary to avoid payment of benefits for a number of 108 weeks in excess of the maximum specified in subsection (d) of section 43:21-3 109 of this Title.

110 Unless the claimant or any interested party within 7 calendar days after 111 delivery of notification of an initial determination or within 10 calendar days 112 after such notification was mailed to his or their last-known address and 113 addresses, files an appeal from such decision, such decision shall be final 114 and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith, except for such 115 determinations as may be altered in benefit amounts or duration as pro-116 vided in this paragraph. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to 117 the period covered by the appeal shall be payable only after a determina-118 tion of entitlement by the appellate tribunal; benefits payable for periods 119 pending an appeal and not in dispute shall be paid as such benefits accrue; 120 provided, that insofar as any such appeal is or may be an appeal from a 121 determination to the effect that the claimant is disqualified under the pro-
122 visions of section 43:21-5 of the Revised Statutes or any amendments thereof
123 or supplements thereto, benefits pending determination of the appeal shall be 124 withheld only for the period of disqualification as provided for in said 125 section, and notwithstanding such appeal the benefits otherwise provided by 126 this act shall be paid for the period subsequent to such period of disqualifica-127 tion; and provided, also, that if there are 2 determinations of entitlement, 128 benefits for the period covered by such determinations shall be paid regard-129 less of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but no employer's account 130 shall be charged with benefits so paid if the decision is finally reversed.

131 (2) [(3)] Procedure for making initial determinations in certain cases 132 of concurrent employment, with respect to benefit years commencing on or 133 after January 1, 1953.

134 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Title, if an individual shows 135 to the satisfaction of the deputy that there were at least 13 weeks in his base 136 period in each of which he earned wages from 2 or more employers totaling 137 $15.00 or more but in each of which there was no single employer from 138 whom he earned as much as $15.00, then such individual's claim shall be 139 determined in accordance with the special provisions of this paragraph. In 140 such case, the deputy shall determine the individual's eligibility for benefits, 141 his average weekly wage, weekly benefit rate and maximum total benefits as 142 if all his base year employers were a single employer. Such determination 143 shall apportion the liability for benefit charges thereunder to the individual's 144 several base year employers so that each employer's maximum liability for 145 charges thereunder bears approximately the same relation to the maximum 146 total benefits allowed as the wages earned by the individual from each em-147 ployer during the base year bears to his total wages earned from all em-148 ployers during the base year. Such initial determination shall also specify 149 the individual's last date of employment within the base year with respect 150 to each base year employer, and such employers shall be charged for bene-151 fits paid under said initial determination in the inverse chronological order 152 of such last dates of employment.

153-175 (3) [(4)] Procedure for making subsequent determinations with respect 176 to benefit years commencing on or after January 1, 1953. The deputy shall 177 make determinations with respect to claims for benefits thereafter in the 178 course of the benefit year in accordance with any initial determination allow-

179 ing benefits, and under which benefits have not been exhausted, and each 180 notification of a benefit payment shall be a notification of an affirmative sub-181 sequent determination. The allowance of benefits by the deputy on any such 182 determination, or the denial of benefits by the deputy on any such deter-183 mination, shall be appealable in the same manner and under the same limi-184 tations as is provided in the case of initial determinations.

185 (c) Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after 186 affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or 187 modify the findings of fact and the determination. The parties shall be duly 188 notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which 189 shall be deemed to be the final decision of the board of review, unless within 190 10 days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision, further 191 appeal is initiated pursuant to subsection (e) of this section.

192 (d) Appeal tribunals. To hear and decide disputed benefit claims, includ-193 ing appeals from determinations with respect to demands for refunds of 194 benefits under section 43:21-16 (d) of this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.), 195 the director with the approval of the Commissioner of Labor and Industry 196 shall establish 1 or more impartial appeal tribunals consisting in each case 197 of either a salaried examiner or a body, consisting of 3 members, 1 of whom 198 shall be a salaried examiner, who shall serve as chairman, 1 of whom shall be 199 a representative of employers and the other of whom shall be a representative 200 of employees; each of the latter 2 members shall serve at the pleasure of the 201 commissioner and be paid a fee of not more than $20.00 per day of active 202 service on such tribunal plus necessary expenses. No person shall partici-203 pate on behalf of the division in any case in which he is an interested party.
204 The director may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualifica-205 tion of any member of an appeal tribunal. The chairman shall act alone in 206 the absence or disqualification of any other member and his alternates. In 207 no case shall the hearings proceed unless the chairman of the appeal tribunal 208 is present.

209 (e) Board of review. The board of review may on its own motion affirm, 210 modify, or set aside any decision of an appeal tribunal on the basis of the 211 evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional
213 appeals before it. The board of review shall permit such further appeal by 214 any of the parties interested in a decision of an appeal tribunal which is not 215 unanimous and from any determination which has been overruled or modified 216 by any appeal tribunal. The board of review may remove to itself or transfer 217 to another appeal tribunal the proceedings on any claim pending before an 218 appeal tribunal. Any proceeding so removed to the board of review shall be 219 heard by a quorum thereof in accordance with the requirements of subsec-220 tion (c) of this section. The board of review shall promptly notify the in-221 terested parties of its findings and decision.

222 (f) Procedure. The manner in which disputed benefit claims, and ap-223 peals from determinations with respect to (1) claims for benefits and (2) 224 demands for refunds of benefits under section 43:21-16 (d) of this chapter 225 (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.) shall be presented, the reports thereon required from 226 the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals 227 shall be in accordance with rules prescribed by the board of review for de-228 termining the rights of the parties, whether or not such rules conform to 229 common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of pro-230 cedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connec-231 tion with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing upon a disputed 232 claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim 233 is further appealed.

234 (g) Witness fees. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be 235 allowed fees at a rate fixed by the director. Such fees and all expenses of 236 proceedings involving disputed claims shall be deemed a part of the expense 237 of administering this chapter (R. S. 43:21-1 et seq.).

238 (h) Court review. Any decision of the board of review shall become 239 final as to any party upon the mailing of a copy thereof to such party or to
