Senate, No. 939 (First Reprint)

1 AN ACT designating the Black Swallowtail butterfly as the New
2 Jersey State Butterfly, and supplementing chapter 9A of Title 52
3 of the Revised Statutes.

5 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail butterfly is one of the most familiar
6 and most studied butterflies in North America, and is widely
7 admired for its beauty; and

8 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail is indigenous to New Jersey, and 9 can be found in each of the State's 21 counties; and

10 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail is a large, black butterfly with two 11 rows of yellow spots near the margins of its forewings and 12 hindwings, and more subtle red-orange and blue markings on its 13 hindwings; and

14 WHEREAS, Adult Black Swallowtails have a wingspan of up to four 15 inches, with females typically larger than males with an iridescent
16 blue band between the yellow bands while the male has a more
17 pronounced yellow band on the hindwings with a blue cloud under 18 it; and

19 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail's mature caterpillar is smooth and 20 green, marked with black bands and bright yellow spots, and is 21 familiar to gardeners throughout the State; and

22 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail can be seen in New Jersey between 23 the months of April and October, and is most active between May 24 and July with its chrysalis overwintering in New Jersey; and

25 WHEREAS, Habitats of the Black Swallowtail are generally open areas
26 like wetlands, fields, flat-woods, pine savannahs, farms, and 27 gardens; and

28 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail is attracted to a variety of 29 cultivated herbs like celery, dill, parsley, and sweet fennel, as well
30 as wild herbs like Golden Alexanders and Queen Anne's lace, all
31 of which grow in New Jersey; and

32 WHEREAS, The Black Swallowtail is non-destructive to commercial 33 agriculture, and pollinates many cultivated flowers and crops; and

34 WHEREAS, The ease with which Black Swallowtails can be raised 35 from egg to adult during the school year will provide generations of 36 school children exciting opportunities to learn about butterfly life
37 cycles and expand their awareness of pollinators and the critical 38 role they play in our food supply; and

SENATE, No. 939

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 11, 2014

The Senate State Government, Wagering, Tourism and Historic Preservation Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Senate Bill No. 939.

As amended, this bill designates the Black Swallowtail butterfly as the official State Butterfly of New Jersey. This large, black, yellow and blue butterfly is indigenous to New Jersey and can be found in each of the State's 21 counties. The Black Swallowtail is both beautiful and beneficial, pollinating many cultivated flowers and crops. For generations to come, New Jersey school children can raise Black Swallowtails and other butterflies in their classrooms as they have done for years, thus gaining a valuable appreciation for natural science. By designating a State butterfly, New Jersey joins a majority of states that have made such a designation. It also recognizes the important role that butterflies and other pollinators play in agriculture and the ecosystem.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS

The committee amended the bill to correct a technical error in the preamble.

As reported and amended by the committee, Senate Bill No. 939 is identical to Assembly Bill No. 2913(1R).

Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie today took action on legislation, including a bill aimed at helping inmates who were victims of domestic violence and a second bill designed to help non-violent drug offenders reclaim their lives by streamlining the process for expungement of their criminal records.

The Governor suggested minor changes to strengthen Senate Bill No. 995, which seeks to help domestic violence victims who have been convicted of crimes against their abusers by establishing a community reentry program to assist victim-offenders assimilate into society upon release from custody and prevent further victimization.

Governor Christie conditionally vetoed the bill, proposing that the program be established solely in the Department of Corrections.

"The goal of this bill is commendable and I sincerely support its objective," Governor Christie said. "Domestic violence is tragic, and victims deserve support and counseling. However, the bill conflates the statutory and regulatory responsibilities of the Department of Corrections and the State Parole Board, combining the agencies' separate residential program functions. Accordingly, I suggest minor amendments, in accordance with the intent of the legislation to establish this program within the Department of Corrections, consistent with its existing reintegration programming and tailored to the specific needs of this limited inmate population."

The bill as written also called for an automatic early release program for this specific subset of inmates upon successful completion of the reentry program, an element of the bill that Governor Christie does not support.

"I cannot support the creation of early release programs because they would begin to chisel away at the long-standing function of the State Parole Board," Governor Christie said. "For decades, the State Parole Board has faithfully fulfilled its charge to carefully review and consider the underlying facts and circumstances of each applicant for parole. While I continue to encourage the Legislature to explore reforms that will create efficiencies in State government, I remain grounded in my belief that the review of parole applications is best accomplished through the reasoned, compassionate, experienced and individualized judgment of the State Parole Board and not through an automatic process based upon one factor."

Governor Christie similarly took action to strengthen the Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bills Nos. 206, 471, 1663, 2879, 3060 and 3108, and urged quick approval from the Legislature.

The bill proposes to allow those who have successfully completed the Drug Court program to expunge the related criminal charges, and it further aims to make the expungement process more efficient.

Seeking to balance the needs of non-violent ex-offenders with public safety, Governor Christie conditionally vetoed the bill, retaining the current waiting period for expungements for indictable offenses, currently 10 years, or five years if a court determines that expungement is in the public's interest.

"While I support breaking down barriers to employment and education for non-violent ex-offenders, I cannot endorse a bill that compromises public safety," Governor Christie said. "As written, this bill would cut in half the presumptive waiting period to expunge indictable offenses, often felonies, from ten years to five years, and eliminate an important safeguard which allows a judge to consider whether granting an expungement is in the public's interest. The current public interest exception to the presumptive waiting period is an effective and efficient way to help ex-offenders combat the collateral consequences of their offense, while also ensuring that public safety is not compromised."

Governor Christie further suggested retaining the five-year waiting period for disorderly persons offenses, while adopting the bill's provision to lower this waiting period to three years, if a court determines that expungement is in the public interest.

The Governor also took the following action on other pending legislation:
