4 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
5 of New Jersey:

6

7 1. The Department of Agriculture shall publish on its Internet
8 website, and update as appropriate, a page for “New Jersey
9 Gleaning Week,” established by J.R. of 2015 (pending before the 10 Legislature as Assembly Joint Resolution No. 93 of 2014-15), and 11 “Farmers Against Hunger Day,” established by J.R. of 2015
12 (pending before the Legislature as Assembly Joint Resolution No.
13 94 of 2014-15), for the purposes of educating the public on food
14 insecurity and food waste, recognizing the need of many New
15 Jersey households for fresh, healthy foods, and informing the public
16 of any events offered during “New Jersey Gleaning Week” and 17 “Farmers Against Hunger Day.” The department shall post on the 18 page a hyperlink to the website of the New Jersey Agricultural 19 Society, so that farmers, community organizations, businesses, and 20 volunteers may learn more about gleaning efforts in the State.

21

STATEMENT

30 This bill directs the Department of Agriculture to publish on its
31 website, and update as appropriate, a page for “New Jersey
32 Gleaning Week” and “Farmers Against Hunger Day.”

33 Each year, approximately 40 percent of the United States food
34 supply goes uneaten due to losses at the farm, retail, and consumer
35 levels. At the same time, 14 percent of U.S. households struggle to 36 put enough food on the table, leaving 49 million Americans,
37 including 16 million children, at risk of going hungry. In New
38 Jersey, in particular, 1.15 million residents, including 375,000
39 children suffer from food insecurity. Increasing the efficiency of 40 our food system, so that all Americans have access to fresh, healthy 41 food, is imperative, and requires a collaborative effort between 42 governments, businesses, nonprofit organizations, and consumers.
43 Gleaning, which is the process of collecting excess fresh food from

1 farms, markets, and other locations to provide to those in need, is
2 one important way to achieve this goal.

3 “New Jersey Gleaning Week,” which would be established by
4 Assembly Joint Resolution No. 93 of 2014-15, would take place
5 during the last full week of September. “Farmers Against Hunger
6 Day,” which would be established by Assembly Joint Resolution
7 No. 94 of 2014-15, would take place on the Wednesday of “New 8 Jersey Gleaning Week.” This bill would direct the department to 9 publish on its website a page for “New Jersey Gleaning Week” and 10 “Farmers Against Hunger Day” for the purposes of educating the 11 public on the issues of food insecurity and food waste, recognizing

Governor Christie Takes Action On Pending Legislation

Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie today took action on legislation, including a bill aimed at helping inmates who were victims of domestic violence and a second bill designed to help non-violent drug offenders reclaim their lives by streamlining the process for expungement of their criminal records.

The Governor suggested minor changes to strengthen Senate Bill No. 995, which seeks to help domestic violence victims who have been convicted of crimes against their abusers by establishing a community reentry program to assist victim-offenders assimilate into society upon release from custody and prevent further victimization.

Governor Christie conditionally vetoed the bill, proposing that the program be established solely in the Department of Corrections.

"The goal of this bill is commendable and I sincerely support its objective," Governor Christie said. "Domestic violence is tragic, and victims deserve support and counseling. However, the bill conflates the statutory and regulatory responsibilities of the Department of Corrections and the State Parole Board, combining the agencies' separate residential program functions. Accordingly, I suggest minor amendments, in accordance with the intent of the legislation to establish this program within the Department of Corrections, consistent with its existing reintegration programming and tailored to the specific needs of this limited inmate population."

The bill as written also called for an automatic early release program for this specific subset of inmates upon successful completion of the reentry program, an element of the bill that Governor Christie does not support.

"I cannot support the creation of early release programs because they would begin to chisel away at the long-standing function of the State Parole Board," Governor Christie said. "For decades, the State Parole Board has faithfully fulfilled its charge to carefully review and consider the underlying facts and circumstances of each applicant for parole. While I continue to encourage the Legislature to explore reforms that will create efficiencies in State government, I remain grounded in my belief that the review of parole applications is best accomplished through the reasoned, compassionate, experienced and individualized judgment of the State Parole Board and not through an automatic process based upon one factor."

Governor Christie similarly took action to strengthen the Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bills Nos. 206, 471, 1663, 2879, 3060 and 3108, and urged quick approval from the Legislature.

The bill proposes to allow those who have successfully completed the Drug Court program to expunge the related criminal charges, and it further aims to make the expungement process more efficient.

Seeking to balance the needs of non-violent ex-offenders with public safety, Governor Christie conditionally vetoed the bill, retaining the current waiting period for expungements for indictable offenses, currently 10 years, or five years if a court determines that expungement is in the public's interest.

"While I support breaking down barriers to employment and education for non-violent ex-offenders, I cannot endorse a bill that compromises public safety," Governor Christie said. "As written, this bill would cut in half the presumptive waiting period to expunge indictable offenses, often felonies, from ten years to five years, and eliminate an important safeguard which allows a judge to consider whether granting an expungement is in the public's interest. The current public interest exception to the presumptive waiting period is an effective and efficient way to help ex-offenders combat the collateral consequences of their offense, while also ensuring that public safety is not compromised."

Governor Christie further suggested retaining the five-year waiting period for disorderly persons offenses, while adopting the bill's provision to lower this waiting period to three years, if a court determines that expungement is in the public interest.

The Governor also took the following action on other pending legislation:
