STATEMENT

6       This bill prohibits the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that 7 appear to be genuine firearms. An “imitation firearm” is defined in 8 New Jersey’s firearm statutes as an object or device that is reasonably
9 capable of being mistaken for a firearm. The bill defines “toy gun” as
10 a facsimile or reproduction of a firearm that is marketed as a product
11 intended for children or is substantially similar in appearance, size, and 12 shape to a genuine firearm.

13       The bill prohibits the sale of a toy gun or imitation firearm unless it
14 meets certain specifications. Under the bill, a toy gun or imitation 15 firearm is required to: 1) be a color other than black, blue, silver, or 16 aluminum; 2) be marked with a non-removable orange stripe that is at 17 least one inch in width and runs the entire length of each side of the

22       The bill provides that a toy gun or imitation firearm that does not 23 meet these standards is required to meet the federal standards for the 24 appearance and configuration of toy guns and imitation firearms
25 established pursuant to 15 CFR 272.1 et seq. Under federal law, it is 26 unlawful to manufacture, enter into commerce, ship, transport, or 27 receive a toy gun or imitation firearm unless it has one of the 28 following characteristics:

29       a) a blaze orange or orange color permanently affixed to the 30 muzzle end of the barrel as an integral part of the entire device and 31 recessed no more than six millimeters from the muzzle end of the 32 barrel;

33       b) a blaze orange or orange color permanently affixed to the
34 exterior surface of the barrel, covering the circumference of the barrel
35 from the muzzle end for a depth of at least six millimeters;

36       c) is entirely constructed of transparent or translucent materials

ASSEMBLY APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

ASSEMBLY, No. 4260

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 12, 2019

The Assembly Appropriations Committee reports favorably Assembly Bill No. 4260.

This bill prohibits the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms. An “imitation firearm” is defined in New Jersey’s firearm statutes as an object or device that is reasonably capable of being mistaken for a firearm. The bill defines “toy gun” as a facsimile or reproduction of a firearm that is marketed as a product intended for children or is substantially similar in appearance, size, and shape to a genuine firearm.

The bill prohibits the sale of a toy gun or imitation firearm unless it meets certain specifications. Under the bill, a toy gun or imitation firearm is required to: 1) be a color other than black, blue, silver, or aluminum; 2) be marked with a non-removable orange stripe that is at least one inch in width and runs the entire length of each side of the gun’s barrel; and 3) have a barrel that is at least one inch in diameter and closed at a distance of at least one-half inch from the barrel’s front end with the same material of which the toy gun or imitation firearm is made.

The bill provides that a toy gun or imitation firearm that does not meet these standards is required to meet the federal standards for the appearance and configuration of toy guns and imitation firearms established pursuant to 15 CFR 272.1 et seq. Under federal law, it is unlawful to manufacture, enter into commerce, ship, transport, or receive a toy gun or imitation firearm unless it has one of the following characteristics:

a) a blaze orange or orange color permanently affixed to the muzzle end of the barrel as an integral part of the entire device and recessed no more than six millimeters from the muzzle end of the barrel;

b) a blaze orange or orange color permanently affixed to the exterior surface of the barrel, covering the circumference of the barrel from the muzzle end for a depth of at least six millimeters;

c) is entirely constructed of transparent or translucent materials which permits unmistakable observation of the device’s complete contents; or

d) the entire exterior surface of the device is colored in white, bright red, bright orange, bright yellow, bright green, bright blue, bright pink, or bright purple, either singly or as the predominant color in combination with other colors in any pattern.

The bill exempts theatrical firearms which are used in movie and film productions.

The bill establishes penalties for violations at a maximum of $500 for the first offense and $1,000 for each subsequent offense.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Office of Legislative Services (OLS) finds that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure increases to the Division of Consumer Affairs in the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and municipal courts due to the additional workload to implement the provisions of the bill and prosecute violations.

The OLS also finds this legislation will result in additional State and municipal revenue from penalties received from individuals convicted of violating the bill's provisions. The civil penalty established by the bill is not to be more than $500 for a first offense and not more than $1,000 for each subsequent offense. The OLS has insufficient data to serve as a basis for projecting the frequency of civil penalty violations subject to the provisions of the bill.

- The Office of Legislative Services (OLS) finds that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure increases to the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and municipal courts from the additional workload to implement the provisions of the bill and prosecute violations.
- The OLS also finds this legislation will result in additional State and municipal revenue from penalties received from individuals convicted of violating the bill's provisions. BILL DESCRIPTION

This bill prohibits the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms. The bill provides that a toy gun or imitation firearm that does not meet specific standards as noted in the bill is required to meet the federal standards for the appearance and configuration of toy guns and imitation firearms established by federal law. The bill does exempt theatrical firearms which are used in movie and film productions.

The bill establishes penalties for violations at a maximum of $500 for the first offense and a maximum of $1,000 for each subsequent offense.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

None received.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

The OLS concludes that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure and revenue increases to the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and municipal courts. The OLS also finds this legislation will result in additional State and municipal revenue from penalties received from individuals convicted of violating the bill's provisions.

There is also the societal cost associated with each occurrence of accidental death involving toy guns. According to the Washington Post's police shooting database, 81 people nationwide have died in police shootings while holding toy guns since 2017.

Expenditure Increases: The OLS finds that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure increases to the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and municipal courts from the additional workload to implement the provisions of the bill and prosecute violations. The Department of Law and Public Safety's Division of Consumer Affairs would be required to adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the provisions of this bill.

Revenue Gains: Additional indeterminate annual State and municipal revenue would accrue from penalty payments received from convicted violators of the new statutory provisions.

The civil penalty established by the bill is a maximum of $500 for a first offense and a maximum of $1,000 for each subsequent offense. The OLS has insufficient data to serve as a basis for projecting the frequency of civil penalty violations subject to the provisions of the bill. The OLS cannot determine 1) the number of convictions that will result from the bill's newly created offense and, by extension, 2) the total of any resultant fine, fee, and assessment collections. The OLS additionally notes that due to financial constraints many penalties assessed on those persons convicted of crimes are not paid.

SENATE, No. 4335

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 12, 2019

The Senate Commerce Committee reports favorably Senate Bill No. 4335.

This bill prohibits the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms. An “imitation firearm” is defined in New Jersey’s firearm statutes as an object or device that is reasonably capable of being mistaken for a firearm. The bill defines “toy gun” as a facsimile or reproduction of a firearm that is marketed as a product intended for children or is substantially similar in appearance, size, and shape to a genuine firearm.

LEGISLATIVE FISCAL ESTIMATE

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
218th LEGISLATURE

DATED: JANUARY 14, 2020

SUMMARY

- Synopsis: Prohibits sale of certain toy guns and imitation firearms.
- Type of Impact: Annual State Expenditure and Revenue Increases; General Fund.
- Agencies Affected: Department of Law and Public Safety; Office of Administrative Law; the Judiciary; Department of the Treasury.

Office of Legislative Services Estimate

Fiscal Impact
Annual State Expenditure Increase	Indeterminate
Annual State Revenue Increase	Indeterminate

- The Office of Legislative Services (OLS) finds that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure increases to the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Office of Administrative Law, and the Superior Court from the additional workload to implement the provisions of the bill and to prosecute and adjudicate violations. If violators do not pay the full amount of the assessed penalties, the Department of the Treasury will also incur additional debt collection expenditures.
- The OLS also finds this legislation will result in additional State revenue from civil penalty payments received from individuals convicted of having violated the bill's prohibition against the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms.
- The OLS cannot quantify the fiscal impacts because of insufficient information on the number of cases that will be brought for alleged violations of the prohibition established by the bill and the number of cases that will result in a penalty assessment.

BILL DESCRIPTION

This bill prohibits the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms with the exception of theatrical firearms that are used in movie and film productions. Maximum penalties are $500 for the first offense and $1,000 for each subsequent offense.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

None received.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

The OLS concludes that the bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure and revenue increases to the State.

Expenditure Increases: The bill will cause indeterminate annual expenditure increases to the Department of Law and Public Safety, the Office of Administrative Law, and the Superior Court from the additional workload to implement the provisions of the bill and to prosecute and adjudicate violations. If violators do not pay the full amount of the assessed penalties, the Department of the Treasury will also incur additional debt collection expenditures. The OLS cannot quantify the annual expenditure increase because of a lack of information on the number of cases that will be brought for the alleged violation of the prohibition against the sale of toy guns and imitation firearms that appear to be genuine firearms.

The Department of Law and Public Safety's Division of Consumer Affairs will be required to adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the provisions of this bill. According to the "Penalty Enforcement Law of 1999," P.L.1999, c.274 (N.J.S.A.2A:58-10 et seq.), the Division of Consumer Affairs will also be responsible to bring actions to impose civil penalties for a violation of the bill. Any contested case will be referred to the Office of Administrative Law. If the case remains contested after the issuance of an Office of Administrative Law decision, the case will be appealable to the Superior Court. The Superior Court, in turn, will conduct hearings, collect testimony, and if a violation occurred, assess civil penalties.

Revenue Gain: Additional indeterminate annual State revenue will accrue from any civil penalty payments received from convicted violators of the new statutory provisions. The civil penalty is a maximum of $500 for a first offense and a maximum of $1,000 for each subsequent offense. The OLS has insufficient data to determine 1) the number of convictions that will result from the bill's newly created offense and, by extension, 2) the total amount of any resultant penalty assessments and collections. The OLS additionally notes that experience suggests that not all violators may pay assessed penalties in full.
