ASSEMBLY, No. 1087

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: JANUARY 22, 2004

The Assembly Law and Public Safety Committee reports favorably Assembly Bill No. 1087.

Assembly Bill No. 1087 makes it a crime of the third degree to kill a search and rescue dog and a crime of the fourth degree to maim or inflict harm upon a search and rescue dog. A crime of the third degree is punishable by a term of imprisonment of three to five years, a fine of up to $15,000, or both. A crime of the fourth degree is punishable by a term of imprisonment of up to 18 months, a fine of up to $10,000, or both.

These dogs are commonly used for locating injured and trapped persons during catastrophes, such as earthquakes. The bill was modeled on Arkansas legislation.

This bill was pre-filed for introduction in the 2004 legislative session pending technical review. As reported, the bill includes the changes required by technical review, which has been performed.
