All principals, teachers and employees in the employ of a school district being dissolved pursuant to sections 7 or 8 of this act shall be transferred to and continue in their respective employments in the employ of the county school district and their rights to tenure, pension and accumulated leave of absence accorded under the laws of the State shall not be affected by their transfer to the employ of the county school district.

10. The State Board of Education shall promulgate rules pursuant to the "Administrative Procedure Act," P.L.1968, c.410 (C.52:14B-1 et seq.), to effectuate the provisions of this act, including rules governing the duties and responsibilities of a board of school estimate of a county school district and setting forth the method for providing State aid to a county school district.

11. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT

This bill permits the consolidation of a county special services school district and a county vocational school district in those counties in which both types of districts have been established as of the effective date of this bill. In the case of a county which has not established a county special services school district as of the effective date of this bill, if the board of chosen freeholders determines the need for a county special services school district, then the board will be permitted, by resolution, to establish a combined county school district. Currently eight counties have established county special services school districts. A county vocational school district exists in every county. The newly formed district will be referred to as the "County School District."

The board of education of a county school district will consist of the county superintendent of schools, ex officio, and six persons to be appointed by the chief elected executive officer of the county, or the director of the board of chosen freeholders, with the advice and consent of the remaining members of the board of chosen freeholders, as appropriate to the appointment procedures established by the form of government of the county. In any county having a county mental health board, the chairman thereof, or his designee, will also serve as an ex-officio, nonvoting member of the board. At least three of the appointed members will have an interest in children with an educational disability or in the field of mental health. The appointed members must be citizens and residents of the county for at least two years immediately preceding appointment to the board and will serve for terms of three years.

The bill provides that all of the appointed members on the dissolving boards of education will serve on the first board of education of the consolidated district. As the terms of the appointed members expire, the positions on the board will be abolished until the number of appointed members on the board reaches six. Thereafter, appointments will be made pursuant to the provisions of the bill.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a board of school estimate in a county school district. The board of school estimate will consist of two members of the board of education of the county school district, appointed by that board, two members of the board of chosen freeholders of the county in which the school district is situate, appointed by that board, and the county executive in counties operating under the county executive plan pursuant to the "Optional County Charter Law," P.L.1972, c.154 (C.40:41A-1 et seq.) and the director of the board of chosen freeholders, in other counties.

19 counties.
20 Under the provisions of the bill, the State Board of Education
21 will promulgate rules to effectuate the provisions of the bill
22 including rules governing the duties and responsibilities of a board
23 of school estimate of a county school district and setting forth the 24 method for providing State aid to a county school district.

STATEMENT

This bill will permit a board of chosen freeholders to consolidate the boards of education of the county special services school district and the county vocational school district into a single board. The board will be known as "The Board of Education of the Special Services School District and the Vocational School District of the county of" This board will have all the powers, functions and duties provided pursuant to law to a board of education of a county special services school district and a board of education of a county vocational school district.

The consolidated board will consist of the county superintendent of schools, ex officio, and six persons to be appointed by the chief elected executive officer of the county, or the director of the board of chosen freeholders, with the advice and consent of the remaining members of the board of chosen freeholders, as appropriate to the appointment procedures established by the form of government of the county. In any county having a county mental health board, the chairman thereof, or his designee, will also serve as an ex-officio, nonvoting member of the board. At least three of the appointed members will have an interest in children with an educational disability or in the field of mental health and at least three will have an interest in the field of vocational education. The appointed members will serve for terms of three years.

If the board of chosen freeholders establishes a consolidated board pursuant to the provisions of this bill, the county special services school district and the county vocational school district will continue to be funded, operated, and maintained as independent school districts.

ASSEMBLY EDUCATION COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

ASSEMBLY, No. 2640

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 6, 2007

The Assembly Education Committee reports favorably Assembly Bill No. 2640 with committee amendments.

As amended, this bill will permit a board of chosen freeholders to consolidate the boards of education of the county special services school district and the county vocational school district into a single board. The board will be known as "The Board of Education of the Special Services School District and the Vocational School District of the county of" This board will have all the powers, functions and duties provided pursuant to law to a board of education of a county special services school district and a board of education of a county vocational school district.

The consolidated board will consist of the county superintendent of schools, ex officio, and six persons to be appointed by the chief elected executive officer of the county, or the director of the board of chosen freeholders, with the advice and consent of the remaining members of the board of chosen freeholders, as appropriate to the appointment procedures established by the form of government of the county. In any county having a county mental health board, the chairman thereof, or his designee, will also serve as an ex-officio, nonvoting member of the board. At least three of the appointed members will have an interest in children with an educational disability or in the field of wocational education. The appointed members will serve for terms of three years.

If the board of chosen freeholders establishes a consolidated board pursuant to the provisions of this bill, the county special services school district and the county vocational school district will continue to be funded, operated, and maintained as independent school districts.

The committee amendments:

 clarify that nothing in the bill will be deemed to authorize the consolidation of a county special services school district and a county vocational school district, only the boards of education of the two districts;

- change the organization date for the consolidated board of education from November 1 to July 1; and
- clarify employee rights in the two districts sharing the consolidated board of education.

As reported by committee, this bill is identical to the SCS for S- $460\,(1R)$.
