ASSEMBLY SCIENCE, INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY
COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO
ASSEMBLY, No. 4563

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 6, 2018

The Assembly Science, Innovation and Technology Committee reports favorably Assembly Bill No. 4563 with committee amendments.

As amended and reported, this bill makes it unlawful for any person to use an online “bot,” as defined in the bill, to communicate or interact with another person in New Jersey with the intent to mislead the other person about the bot’s artificial identity for the purpose of knowingly deceiving the person with the content of the communication or interaction in order to incentivize a purchase or sale of goods or services in a commercial transaction or to influence a vote in an election. The bill specifies that a person using a bot is not liable under the bill if the person discloses that it is a bot. The disclosure is required to be clear, conspicuous, and reasonably designed to inform a person with whom the bot communicates or interacts that it is a bot. The bill specifies that it does not impose a duty on an online platform that has 10,000,000 or more unique monthly visitors or users located in the United States for a majority of months during the preceding 12 months, including, but not limited to, an Internet web hosting service provider or an Internet service provider.

A person who violates the provisions of the bill is liable for a civil penalty of $2,500 for the first offense, $5,000 for the second offense, and $10,000 for each subsequent offense, to be collected in a civil action by a summary proceeding under the "Penalty Enforcement Law of 1999." The Superior Court is to have jurisdiction of proceedings for the enforcement of the penalty.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS:

The committee amended the bill to make a grammatical change.

SENATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

[First Reprint]

ASSEMBLY, No. 4563

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: NOVEMBER 14, 2019

The Senate Commerce Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Assembly Bill No. A4563 (1R).

As amended, this bill makes it unlawful for any person to use an online “bot,” as defined in the bill, to communicate or interact with a person in this State in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise or real estate or to solicit support for any candidate, party or public question in an election unless the person discloses at the outset of the communication or interaction, in clear and conspicuous fashion, that the communication or interaction is being conducted by or through a bot.

The duties and obligations under the bill are cumulative with any other duties or obligation imposed by law. The bill specifies that it does not impose a duty on a service provider of an online platform, as defined by the bill.

A person who violates the provisions of the bill is liable for a civil penalty of $2,500 for the first offense, $5,000 for the second offense, and $10,000 for each subsequent offense, to be collected in a civil action by a summary proceeding under the "Penalty Enforcement Law of 1999." The Superior Court is to have jurisdiction of proceedings for the enforcement of the penalty. The bill, as amended, allows the Attorney General to seek injunctive relief to prohibit and prevent violations of the bill. The State is also entitled to recover the costs of investigation, costs of the action, and reasonable attorney fees.

As amended by the committee, this bill is identical to Senate Bill No. 3096, as amended and reported by the committee.

Committee amendments:

The committee amendments revise the definition of “bot” to mean an automated online account where all or substantially all of the actions or posts of that account are not directly generated by a live natural person. The amendments also revise the definition of “online platform” to remove certain specifications as to the number of visitors.

In addition, the amendments revise the prohibition contained in the bill to provide that a person shall not use an online bot to communicate or interact with a person in this State in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise or real estate or to solicit support for any candidate, party or public question in an election unless the person discloses at the outset of the communication or interaction, in clear and conspicuous fashion, that the communication or interaction is being conducted by or through a bot.

Lastly, the amendments allow the Attorney General to seek injunctive relief to prohibit and prevent a violation of the bill, and entitle the State to recover costs of an enforcement action.
