STATEMENT

This bill requires non-governmental entities providing annual report filing services to make certain disclosures when soliciting clients.

In New Jersey, for-profit corporations, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, and limited liability companies are required to file annual reports with the State Treasurer through an Internet web site. These entities are also required to pay a filing fee of approximately $50. This bill would apply to persons who file the annual report on behalf of a company or partnership and charge more than $50.

Under the bill, it will be an unlawful practice and a violation of the consumer fraud act for any person to solicit clients in writing for annual report filing services unless the solicitation displays, in a clear and conspicuous manner, the URL address of the Department of the Treasury's Internet web site through which the recipient could file an annual report directly and the amount of the fee that the Department of the Treasury's office assesses for filing annual reports. It will also be a violation of the consumer fraud act to create a false impression in a solicitation for annual report filing services that the recipient is in any way legally required to use the person's services in order to file the report.

An unlawful practice under the consumer fraud act is punishable by a monetary penalty of not more than $10,000 for a first offense and not more than $20,000 for any subsequent offense. In addition, a violation can result in cease and desist orders issued by the Attorney General, the assessment of punitive damages, and the awarding of treble damages and costs to the injured party.

SENATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 2938

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: NOVEMBER 14, 2019

The Senate Commerce Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Senate Bill No. 2938.

This bill requires non-governmental entities providing annual report filing services to make certain disclosures when soliciting clients.

In New Jersey, for-profit corporations, non-profit corporations, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, and limited liability companies are required to file annual reports with the State Treasurer through an Internet web site. These entities are also required to pay a filing fee of approximately $50. This bill would apply to persons who file the annual report on behalf of a company or partnership and charge more than $50.

Under the bill, it will be an unlawful practice and a violation of the consumer fraud act for any person to solicit clients in writing for annual report filing services unless the solicitation displays, in a clear and conspicuous manner, the URL address of the Department of the Treasury's Internet web site through which the recipient could file an annual report directly and the amount of the fee that the Department of the Treasury's office assesses for filing annual reports. It will also be a violation of the consumer fraud act to create a false impression in a solicitation for annual report filing services that the recipient is in any way legally required to use the person's services in order to file the report.

An unlawful practice under the consumer fraud act is punishable by a monetary penalty of not more than $10,000 for a first offense and not more than $20,000 for any subsequent offense. In addition, a violation can result in cease and desist orders issued by the Attorney General, the assessment of punitive damages, and the awarding of treble damages and costs to the injured party.

Committee Amendments:

The committee amended the bill to include non-profit corporations in its requirements and provisions.
