3 ment, suppression, or omission of any material fact [by any person] with 4 intent that others rely upon such concealment, suppression or omission, in 5 connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise, whether or

3 him by this act, may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or 4 affirmation to any person, conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or in-5 quiry, promulgate such rules and regulations, and prescribe such forms as 6 may be necessary, which shall have the force of law.

1 5. Service by the Attorney General of any notice requiring a person

4 tuted service therefor may be made in the following manner:

5 (a) Personal service thereof without this State; or

6 (b) The mailing thereof by registered mail to the last known place of 7 business, residence or abode, within or without this State of such person for 8 whom the same is intended; or

13 (d) Such service as the Superior Court may direct in lieu of personal 14 the statement or report, or obeys the subpoena.

1 7. If any person shall refuse to testify or produce any book, paper or 4 incriminate him, convict him of a crime, or subject him to a penalty or for-5 feiture, and shall, notwithstanding, be directed to testify or to produce such 6 book, paper or document, he shall comply with such direction.

7 A person who is entitled by law to, and does assert such privilege, 8 and who complies with such direction shall not thereafter be prosecuted or

2 engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in any practice declared
3 to be unlawful by this act he may seek and obtain in an action in the Su-4 perior Court an injunction prohibiting such person from continuing such 5 practices or engaging therein or doing any acts in furtherance thereof or 6 an order appointing a receiver, or both after appropriate notice to such per-
7 son. Such notice shall state generally the relief sought and be served in ac-

11 of authority to do business in this State of a foreign corporation, and revoke 12 any other licenses, permits or certificates issued pursuant to law to such per-13 son which have been or may be used to further such unlawful practice. The 14 court may make such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent

15 the use or employment by a person of any prohibited practices, or which 16 may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or prop-
17 erty, real or personal which may have been acquired by means of any prac-18 tice herein declared to be unlawful.

1 9. When a receiver is appointed by the court pursuant to this act, he 2 shall have the power to sue for, collect, receive and take into his possession 3 all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects, lands and 4 tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action, bills, notes
5 and property of every description, derived by means of any practice declared 6 to be illegal and prohibited by this act, including property with which such 7 property has been mingled, if it cannot be identified in kind because of such 8 commingling, and to sell, convey, and assign the same and hold and dispose 9 of the proceeds thereof under the direction of the court. Any person who 10 has suffered damages as a result of the use or employment of any unlawful 11 practices and submits proof to the satisfaction of the court that he has in 12 fact been damaged, may participate with general creditors in the distribu-13 tion of the assets to the extent he has sustained out-of-pocket losses. In the 14 case of a corporation, partnership or business entity the receiver shall settle 15 the estate and distribute the assets under the direction of the court, and he 16 shall have all the powers and duties conferred upon receivers by the provi-
17 sions of Title 14, Corporations, General, so far as the provisions thereof are 18 applicable. The court shall have jurisdiction of all questions arising in such 19 proceedings and may make such orders and judgments therein as may be 20 required.

1 10. Subject to an order of the court terminating the business affairs of 2 any person after receivership proceedings held pursuant to this act, the pro-
3 visions of this act shall not bar any claim against any person who has ac-
4 quired any moneys or property, real or personal, by means of any practice 5 herein declared to be unlawful.

1 11. In any action or proceeding brought under the provisions of this 2 act, the Attorney General shall be entitled to recover costs for the use of 3 this State.

1 12. If any provision of this law or the application thereof to any per-

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 830, 1967

From: OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

For Release: June 8, 1967
after 3:30 P.M.

STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR RICHARD J. HUGHES ON SIGNING
OF ASSEMBLY BILL NOS. 403, 406, 613 and 830
AND SENATE BILL NOS. 15 and 327

I am pleased today to sign into law several bills which constitute significant steps toward increased protection for the New Jersey consumer in many important areas.

~~Briefly, these~~ measures involve the following protection to the consumer:

Revision of the Small Loans Act to provide numerous changes, most important of which from the standpoint of the public being the elimination of wage assignments in connection with collections on such loans and the requirement that the borrower at the time of negotiating the loan receive a statement setting forth the true rate of interest. This is Assembly Bill No. 403.

Assembly Bill No. 406, another significant step toward consumer protection, requires the posting in all hotel, motel and guest-house rooms ^{of} the charges for the renting of such rooms. In addition, this measure provides for penalties for failure to comply.

The signing of Assembly Bill No. 613 marks the strengthening of the Real Estate Syndication Law by increasing the penalties for violation and giving considerable enforcement powers to the Bureau of Securities to eliminate any undesirable practices in the selling of real estate syndications.

With the establishment of the Consumer Fraud Bureau this year, New Jersey took a long step toward protecting the consuming public from a multitude of unscrupulous practices. The signing into law today of Assembly Bill No. 830 provides a means for the Attorney General's office, through the Bureau of Consumer Frauds, to enforce provisions of the Consumer Fraud Law effectively. It does so by permitting the Attorney General to hold hearings on consumer fraud violations so as to omit the necessity of lengthy court action in many instances.

Senate Bill No. 15 requires the marking of milk cartons with the day of the week on which the milk was pasteurized, rather than the present system of number markings which to some degree has been confusing to the public.

Finally, Senate Bill No. 327 revises the State Uniform Securities Law and for the first time requires the filing of registration statements prior to the sale of securities to the public. This measure, I am certain, will be of great assistance in protecting the public particularly the unsophisticated buyer of securities, so that he may be fully alerted to any risks involved in such purchases.
