STATEMENT

25

26 P.L.1985, c.231 (C.18A:62-4.1) provides that any member of the
27 United States military stationed in the State, as well as his dependents,
28 are eligible for resident tuition rates at public institutions of higher
29 education. This bill extends that provision to the dependent child of 30 United States military personnel who attended high school in New
31 Jersey for a minimum of three years, regardless of where the 32 dependent child resides upon enrollment in the institution.

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

ASSEMBLY MILITARY AND VETERANS' AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 275

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: OCTOBER 8, 2020

The Assembly Military and Veterans' Affairs Committee reports favorably Senate Bill No. 275.

P.L.1985, c.231 (C.18A:62-4.1) provides that any member of the United States military stationed in the State, as well as his dependents, are eligible for resident tuition rates at public institutions of higher education. This bill extends that provision to the dependent child of United States military personnel who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years, regardless of where the dependent child resides upon enrollment in the institution.

Senate Bill No. 275 is identical to Assembly Bill No. 2142 of 2020-2021.

ASSEMBLY APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 275

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: OCTOBER 26, 2020

The Assembly Appropriations Committee reports favorably Senate Bill No. 275.

P.L.1985, c.231 (C.18A:62-4.1) provides that any member of the United States military stationed in the State, as well as his dependents, are eligible for resident tuition rates at public institutions of higher education. This bill extends that provision to the dependent child of United States military personnel who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years, regardless of where the dependent child resides upon enrollment in the institution.

As reported by the committee, Senate Bill No. 275 is identical to Assembly Bill No. 2142, which also was reported by the committee on this date.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The Office of Legislative Services concludes that this bill will result in an indeterminate revenue loss to public institutions of higher education to the extent that non-resident dependent children of United States military personnel, who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years and who are currently charged the non-resident tuition rate, would be charged the resident tuition rate as a result of this bill.

SENATE HIGHER EDUCATION COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 275

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: JANUARY 30, 2020

The Senate Higher Education Committee reports favorably Senate Bill No. 275.

P.L.1985, c.231 (C.18A:62-4.1) provides that any member of the United States military stationed in the State, as well as his dependents, are eligible for resident tuition rates at public institutions of higher education. This bill extends that provision to the dependent child of United States military personnel who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years, regardless of where the dependent child resides upon enrollment in the institution.

This bill was pre-filed for introduction in the 2020-2021 session pending technical review. As reported, the bill includes the changes required by technical review, which has been performed.

LEGISLATIVE FISCAL ESTIMATE
SENATE, No. 275
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
219th LEGISLATURE

DATED: OCTOBER 29, 2020

SUMMARY

- Synopsis: Provides resident tuition rate to certain non-resident dependent children of United States military personnel attending public institutions of higher education.
- Type of Impact: Revenue loss to public institutions of higher education.
- Agencies Affected: Public Institutions of Higher Education.

Office of Legislative Services Estimate

Fiscal Impact	Annual
Revenue Loss to Public Institutions of Higher Education	Indeterminate

- The Office of Legislative Services (OLS) concludes that this bill will result in an indeterminate revenue loss to public institutions of higher education to the extent that non-resident dependent children of United States military personnel, who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years and who are currently charged the non-resident tuition rate, would be charged the resident tuition rate as a result of this bill.

BILL DESCRIPTION

This bill provides that the dependent child of United States military personnel who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years is eligible for the resident tuition rate at public institutions of higher education regardless of where the dependent child resides upon enrollment in the institution. Under current State law, any member of the United States military stationed in the State, as well as the member's dependents, is eligible for the resident tuition rate at public institutions of higher education.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

None received.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

The OLS concludes that this bill will result in an indeterminate revenue loss to public institutions of higher education. Public institutions of higher education will experience revenue losses to the extent that non-resident dependent children of United States military personnel, who attended high school in New Jersey for a minimum of three years and who are currently charged the non-resident tuition rate, would be charged the resident tuition rate as a result of this bill. The OLS has insufficient information to determine the number of students who would qualify for the resident tuition rate as a result of the enactment of this bill.

The OLS notes that the average annual full-time, in-district tuition rate at the county colleges was $4,209 in the 2019-2020 academic year and the average annual full-time, in-State tuition rate at the county colleges was $6,355. The average annual full-time, out-of-State tuition rate at those institutions was $8,161. The average annual full-time, in-State tuition rate for undergraduates at the senior public institutions of higher education in the 2019-2020 academic year was $11,715. Meanwhile, the out-of-State tuition rate was $21,394.
