40 STATEMENT
41

42 This bill would require the New Jersey State Council on the Arts to 43 establish an “Artist District” designation for municipalities or areas 44 within municipalities, to establish criteria for the designation, and to 45 work with the Division of Travel and Tourism to promote any Artist
46 District as a destination for artists and visitors.

1 A municipality which has been designated as an Artist District
2 would have a unique opportunity to market its creative, diverse,
3 entertaining, and other notable services and venues.

4 The council would establish criteria required for a municipality or 5 area within a municipality to be designated by the council as an Artist
6 District, including the minimum number of art related services and 7 venues, such as businesses, galleries, museums, organizations
8 performance halls, studios, theaters, or other facilities, that must be 9 located in the municipality or the area within the municipality. An 10 Artist District may also constitute a concentration of certain types of 11 art, such as dance, literature or writing, film, music, or performing or 12 visual arts, or types of services and venues.

13 The council would designate no more than 25 municipalities or 14 areas within municipalities as an Artist District. The council would, 15 within 60 calendar days, review and approve, approve with conditions,
16 or reject an application for designation as an Artist District.

17 Further, the council would, in consultation with the Division of 18 Travel and Tourism, adopt guidance or standards for an Artist District 19 to advertise, market, or promote itself as a destination for artists and 20 visitors. An Artist District may advertise or otherwise use its 21 designation in accordance with the guidance or standards.
