18 STATEMENT

19

20 This bill provides that a dependent child whose parent or guardian
21 has been transferred to a military base in this State will be considered
22 a resident of the State for the purposes of qualifying for a State tuition
23 aid grant. Under current law, an individual must have had his or her
24 primary residence in this State for at least 12 months in order to be 25 eligible for the award of a State tuition aid grant.

26 The provisions of this bill are similar to those of section 1 of 27 P.L.1985, c.231 (18A:62-4.1) which provides that United States
28 military personnel and their dependents living in New Jersey who are 29 attending public institutions of higher education will be regarded as 30 residents of the State for the purposes of determining tuition.

ASSEMBLY MILITARY AND VETERANS' AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

SENATE EDUCATION COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

SENATE, No. 2205

with committee amendments

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: FEBRUARY 28, 2005

The Senate Education Committee reports favorably and with committee amendments Senate Bill No. 2205.

As amended, this bill provides that a dependent child whose parent or guardian has been transferred to a military installation in this State will be considered a resident of the State for the purposes of qualifying for a State tuition aid grant. Under current law, an individual must have had his or her primary residence in this State for at least 12 months in order to be eligible for the award of a State tuition aid grant.

The provisions of this bill are similar to those of section 1 of P.L.1985, c.231 (C.18A:62-4.1), which provides that United States military personnel and their dependents living in New Jersey who are attending public institutions of higher education will be regarded as residents of the State for the purposes of determining tuition.

The committee amended the bill to make technical changes to punctuation, and to change the phrase "military base" to "military installation" so that it is consistent with other bills and statutes.

As amended, Senate Bill No. 2205 is identical to Assembly Bill No. 3705 (1R).
